Hospital set to be 'community hub'

BRIDPORT hospital could become a 'community hub' if NHS Dorset Clinical Commissioning Group's (CCG) recommendations are approved and adopted.

The organisation has announced its proposals for the future of healthcare in the county, that will be taken to public consultation, in a bid to bring care closer to home as part of the clinical services review.

It proposes making Bridport Community Hospital – along with community hospitals in Blandford, Sherborne, Weymouth, Swanage and Wimborne – into a community hub offering facilities including outpatients, diagnostics and community beds.

The CCG reported that feedback from stakeholder and engagement events had a strong support for Bridport hospital being a community hub with beds as the majority of the West Dorset population lived within a 20 minute drive of Bridport and parking is good at the site.

There was a degree of concern expressed from people in Lyme Regis regarding travel and the challenge of staff recruitment in Bridport.

It was also recommended to have community beds available in Dorset County Hospital and the major hospital – which Dorset CCG proposes is in Poole.

Community hubs providing a range of services, without beds, will be in Portland, Wareham and Shaftesbury.

The CCG say that the benefits to these recommendations include an increase of community beds in Dorset by 69, an additional 10,000 people a year being supported in a community setting – relieving pressure on acute hospitals in Dorchester, Poole and Bournemouth – more than 100,000 additional outpatient appointments and seven day a week urgent care services at community hubs with beds.

Dr Forbes Watson, GP chair of NHS Dorset CCG, said: "These recommendations could see thousands of local people benefit from care delivered closer to home, in a range of community settings, including the proposed community hubs working alongside existing services which deliver health and social care.

"They are the result of close working with local clinicians and members of the public who have told us how they would like services in the community to be delivered.

"Since the launch of the review we have gathered over 29,000 pieces of feedback and spoken with thousands of local people, seeking their views on local services. This has had a real influence on these recommendations that will go forward to public consultation.

"We do of course recognise that there is a great deal of public interest in the review and that these options could cause anxiety amongst some people. Therefore we would like to re-iterate that at this stage these are proposals which will face further national scrutiny before going to a full and thorough public consultation."

Public consultation is planned for autumn 2016. For more information on the clinical services review, visit www.dorsetvision.nhs.uk

Tiles Explained

Choosing tiles can seem difficult, with so many different materials sizes, patterns and finishes available.

Ask the Tile Expert, Charlie

from The Tile and Stone Centre has put together some facts and tips to help you make a well informed choice for your home and outside your home.

Ceramic

Ceramic tiles are hard wearing, easy to lay and work well with underfloor heating. They can be used on both wall and floor and because they are waterproof are especially suited for wet rooms and bathrooms. Ceramic tiles are easy to clean and maintain.

Porcelain

Porcelain is extremely hard wearing, making it ideal for busy areas of the home. Use them on both wall and floor and even outside. (Un glazed tiles should be protected with a sealer). Charlie can advise on sealing and maintenance.

Natural Stone

Natural stone is both beautiful and extremely hard wearing. Hewn from the earth it is naturally hypoallergenic and makes an ideal choice for any floor in the home. Marble is a very popular choice. It's easy to polish, can be honed and like wine improves with age. Once sealed it can be kept clean with a damp mop after vacuuming.

RETIRED Army Major Ian Marshal moved to Lyme Regis in 2012 with wife Annemarie.

He is now a deputy launching authority, education volunteer and lifeboat visits officer for Lyme Regis lifeboat crew, currently celebrating Lyme Regis Lifeboat Week, and was recently appointed secretary of the local branch of the Royal British Legion.

The and Annemarie have two grown up daughters and a grandson.

● WHERE are you originally from and what made you decide to move to Lyme Regis?

Having been a service child I spent much of my early years abroad in Malaya and Cyprus but returned to the UK in the early 1960s to continue my secondary education in and around Newbury in Berkshire. However, before moving to Lyme Regis in 2012 we lived near Andover in Hampshire. We moved to Lyme on a whim really! We felt we had another move in us and just felt we wanted somewhere where we could go walking without getting into a car and if possible have a sea view. Well, we are fortunate that we have both!

● DID you always want a career in the Army?

No, originally I wanted to be a pilot in the RAF but was not medically fit enough for flying duties, although my medical condition did not preclude a career in commercial flying. However, on balance I chose a career in the Army much to my father's disgust having been a decorated wartime bomber pilot!

● TELL us a little about your career in the Army...

I was commissioned into the Royal Army Ordnance Corps in 1969 and served continually for 33 years including 10 years in the Royal Logistic Corps. Although I was a trained Bomb Disposal Officer, I spent most of my career as an equipment support manager and served in Germany, Northern Ireland, Hong Kong and Belize in Central America. Belize was the most fascinating role as I was the logistic adviser to both the Government of Belize's Ministry of National Security and the Commander of the Belize Defense Force.

● WHAT did you do after this?

I retired from the Army in 2001 and worked in London for the British Quality Foundation for three years, after which I returned to working as a consultant in the Defence Logistic Organisation. My last six years were spent as a continuous improvement specialist at the Atomic Weapons Establishment near Reading

● WHAT does your role with the RNLI entail?

I currently fulfil a number of roles with the RNLI.

Firstly, I am one of the Lyme Regis lifeboat Deputy Launching Authorities and, secondly, I am an education volunteer visiting schools and youth organisations to provide beach and sea safety presentations. Lastly, I am the lifeboat visits officer and in between that my wife Annemarie and I do ad hoc RNLI shop volunteering to help out when regular volunteers are not available.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

● WHY did you want to get involved with the charity?

Although I have never been a sailor I have done a lot of scuba diving in my earlier years so have always had a healthy respect for the sea. As such I have been an RNLI shoreline member for a number of years and held our brave lifeboat crews and lifeguards in the highest regards. Our move to Lyme Regis provided the opportunity to become actively engaged with the RNLI.

● YOU'RE also a member of the Royal British Legion branch - why is it important to you to support this charity?

Having served in the Armed Forces one never really leaves! By becoming involved with Royal British Legion helps in maintaining the comrade spirit and in some small way helping those less fortunate than oneself.

● ARE you involved with any other local organisations?

The RNLI and the Royal British Legion take up most of my volunteering time but we support a number of other local organisations and societies as and when we can such as the Marine Theatre.

● WHAT do you enjoy doing in your spare time?

When time permits Annemarie and I have taken up sit-on-top kayaking and just pray every time we go out we do not have to call upon the services of the lifeboat! I guess we'd never live that one down. We also take time to walk around the local area taking in all those wonderful views of the Jurassic Coast has to offer. I am also a tour guide for Palmers Brewery in Bridport which is a fascinating experience.

● WHAT do you like about living in Lyme Regis?

Lyme Regis really is a delightful town with lovely people all of whom have made us most welcome in the short time we have been in residence. We enjoy the bustle of summer listening to the children's laughter and spending time on the beach with Hugo our grandson when we have him to stay. We also love the winter time with all the storms and wonder at the power of the sea which can change from friend to foe so quickly.

● WHICH three people would you invite to your dream dinner party?

Professor Brian Cox because I'm sure if he had been one of my university lecturers I'd be a theoretical physicist as well. Tim Peake, as he has been such an inspiration to youngsters by promoting science, technology, engineering and mathematics; and Sir William Hillary, the founder of the RNLI and a man of immense vision and dogged determination.

Reported crime soars by 15 per cent

RECORDED crime in Dorset rose by 15 per cent last year – the biggest rise in recorded crime for many years.

The rise is according to figures released by the Office for National Statistics for the financial year 2015/16 – April 1st 2015 to March 31st 2016 – compared with the previous 12 month period.

The increase in crime reported to police was predicted by Dorset Police last year.

It follows a national trend across England and Wales, with rises already seen in most police force areas.

Deputy Chief Constable James Vaughan said: "The increase is largely due to people's enhanced confidence in reporting crime to us, the improvements we have made in our crime recording systems and improved compliance with Home Office Counting Rules [a national standard for the recording and counting

by Lottie Welch
lottie@viewnews.co.uk

of offences]. These factors have led to Dorset following the national trend of higher crime statistics.

"Dorset Police has also been working with Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary (HMIC) and the Police and Crime Commissioner to ensure we fully meet the complex and regularly changing Home Office rules on how we record crime. This followed recommendations made by HMIC in 2014."

One change was the inclusion of malicious communications into the category of 'harassment' and as a result into the broad category of 'violent crime'; this contributed to a 37 per cent rise in total violent crime.

Changes to national rules for recording crime have also been a factor. Figures now include all offences that take place in prisons, such as minor altercations, which were previously not always reported to police if they were fully resolved by internal prison disciplinary processes.

Online crime reporting has also made people more likely to report things that they previously would not have, as the process is accessible and convenient.

Sexual offences are also showing an increase of 20 per cent in line with national trends. The force report that this indicates increased confidence to report.

Deputy Chief Constable Vaughan added: "Our safeguarding activity and our victim-focused approach has led to more people coming forward to report crimes affecting the most vulnerable in the county.

"We make no excuse for encouraging people to report such crimes – whatever impact that has on statistics.

"It is clear this is the biggest rise in recorded crime for many years.

"However, with many changes over the last year – both to the national recording rules all police forces follow and our internal systems – they cannot be fairly compared like for like with previous years.

"Therefore, we should consider 2015/16 as a new, more accurate baseline.

"Our longer term analysis now forecasts that the increase shown in 2015/16 will start to revert to the trend of falling crime levels we have seen over recent decades.

"I can reassure people that Dorset remains a safe place to live, work and visit. The officers and staff of Dorset Police are committed to ensuring it stays that way."

Dorset is among a minority of police forces that were graded as good in the HMIC vulnerability inspection last year and was praised for its work to encourage people to report sexual offences, domestic abuse and other crimes involving vulnerable victims.

Martyn Underhill, Dorset Police and Crime Commissioner, said: "Ensuring that people feel confident reporting crime, whatever their situation, is a critical part of British policing.

"I am confident that the increase we are seeing is due to this enhanced trust, along with better recording practices, reflecting trends nationally.

"Reducing the overall number of victims of crime in Dorset is a long term objective of my second term in office and Dorset Police will continue to adapt with the changing nature of policing to aim at achieving that."

Work begins on next year's Jurassic Fields festival

JURASSIC Fields Music Festival's organisers have wasted no time in working on next year's event, having already contacted possible headliners for the two day Asker Meadows showcase.

Organiser Dan Broom said they were all keen to improve on this year's event that featured Doctor and the Medics on the first night and Fun Lovin' Criminals on Saturday. "We haven't let the dust settle and have already started work on looking on how to improve the infrastructure as well as the play list."

Whilst the organisers have been buoyed by the huge number of complimentary messages on social media,

Mr Broom is upset with one media report that suggested they had made a £50,000 profit at this year's festival.

He said: "I am annoyed that the newspaper concerned not only quoted me without contacting me, but have published incorrect and damaging information.

"Their claim is completely untrue, and this fictitious figure has led to me receiving questions from people asking for grants and when the music studio is going to be built.

"I have also had to visit sponsors individually to explain that in fact we made a small loss.

"Although it is a loss, it is a very small one and was expected, but at the same time bodes well for our five-year plan when we expect to make a profit, to allow us to start carrying out our long term objectives.

"The success of the festival and the way it has been received has given us good exposure and a lot of media attention."

The organisers intend to continue their fund raising activities by running a number of musical nights during the coming months at local venues featuring a variety of bands.

They still have a few early bird discounted weekend tickets for next year's festival which has been confirmed as Friday, July 14th and Saturday, July 15th 2017.

They are priced at £25 for an adult, £15 for 13-17/concessions, with children 12 and under still free, and can be purchased from www.jurassicfields.com/tickets

Arthur Woodgate steps down as BYPAT chairman

by Lottie Welch
lottie@viewnews.co.uk

AT THE recent annual general meeting of Bridport Young Persons Action Trust (BYPAT), founder Arthur Woodgate stood down as chairman after serving rather longer than the stipulated three year period.

Former mayor and town councillor, Phil Lathey – now chairman of Allington Parish Council – took over the role, whilst Mr Woodgate was elected charity secretary.

Bridport town councillor and former mayor Maggie Ray was elected as treasurer.

Mr Lathey reported on the proposed partnership with Devon and Somerset based 'The Project' – which supports young people on the path to better mental health.

The need for adequate support for young people with mental health issues was re-emphasised and it was agreed to proceed with developing this locally.

It was reported that the partnership between BYPAT and Bridport Town Council to develop the West Bay play area, to include facilities that could be used by both able bodied and those with a disability, had been an outstanding success, although it had taken a number of years to bring to fruition.

A competition to design an 'inclusivity' sign for the new area had attracted a number of entries from students at the Sir John Colfox Academy and the final result included ideas from five students.

A second competition was underway in partnership with the academy to design a memorial stone commemorating the visit of King Richard III to the town in 1485.

The intention is to unveil the memorial on the anniversary of the visit on November 5th, placing opposite the remains of the Priory where he stayed, situated by East Bridge.

BYPAT's Japanese Exchange programme, in partnership with Tokyo's Koyamadai Educational Foundation, is now in its 20th year.

A group of young people from Bridport, Lyme and Uplyme hosted their partner last summer and will be travelling to Japan soon to stay in Tokyo, visiting Hiroshima and Kyoto.

The group also discussed that whilst it was recognised that there was an attempt to ensure the future of the youth centre, the future of the actual work with the young people was still at risk.

This included the Outreach programme – which helps to reduce the number of crime incidents involving young people – the Humph Sound Studio – a recording studio in Bridport – and the SUMMENTOR project – a summer mentoring programme – all of which had been introduced by Arthur Woodgate, further developed by Phil Lathey and Harry Warren.

Council launches web chat service

A NEW web chat service has been launched by West Dorset District Council and Weymouth and Portland Borough Council.

The service is available on the 'contact us' pages for both councils at www.dorsetforyou.gov.uk and will allow customers to type a question or comment into the designated box and receive a response almost immediately. The service, which started last month, allows customers to access digital information more easily.

Councillor Anthony Alford, leader of West Dorset District Council, said: "I am delighted that we are now able to offer our customers a web chat service. In the past many people have rung up because they want an answer fast, but now they can get a response even quicker by using web chat."

The new web chat service will reduce the councils' cost too as customer service staff can each manage several web chats simultaneously.

It cost 90 pence to deal with each web chat, much less than dealing with phone calls one at a time, which costs £2.83 per call. It will be much better value than the £8.62 it costs to help customers who visit the councils' offices.

Councillor Jeff Cant, chairman of Weymouth and Portland Borough Council's management committee, said: "This new service will be much more convenient for many customers."

"Instead of having to make calls or negotiate their way through the call steering process, they can simply contact us through our website; web chat is easy to use and extremely quick."

Mental healthcare needs improving

ON JULY 19th, I turned on my TV and the Channel 5 news was on. My attention was taken by an item concerning, what I can only say, was a very shameful account of what is happening to our mental healthcare system – if I dare call it that.

Although I don't remember the figures of how psychiatric hospitals, units, support units or parts of general hospital had fared during a recent survey, only three throughout the whole area checked were identified as being good, and the remainder were rated as not coming up to a suitable standard.

Is it any wonder, for example, that people (i.e. mental health service users) in our own area continue to suffer because the poor quality of "care" is way below the expected standard?

At times it makes me wonder that in the 21st century we are still not providing an even part way quality of standard, even after a three to four year battle, which is taking a small core group of people to our wits end, fighting everyday for a proper service of care that should be in evidence, but is definitely not available.

We need our quality of care increased but not decreased.

WITH absolute amazement I was driving towards West Bay and on my right someone was going really fast, on the wrong side of the road, on a disability scooter.

Not only did he not look behind him going from the pavement to the road, which made a very hazardous situation, but I have seen – as we all have – some very careful, responsible users of the disability scooters.

However, being a driver from my time in Her Majesty's Forces many years ago, I would like to see the scooter drivers wearing head protection, something between a biker's (motorbike) and a pedal cyclist's helmet.

Even if only one of those scooter drivers lives was saved, at least it would be evident to look at the situation so that other lives would be saved, including other road users, pedestrians, children and dogs on leads.

ROZ COPSON,
West Bay

WE ARE currently remembering the Battle of the Somme; last year we commemorated the end of WWII.

My father was killed in the latter and my stepfather suffered from the effects of mustard gas inhalation during WWI; both were fighting for self rule, democracy and freedom from German oppression and domination.

The 'chattering classes' who live on social media will also suffer that way, especially if they repeat gossip as fact.

Social media is that, social and open, it's naive to think its private. At least 70 per cent of the younger generation I spoke to voted 'out' because they felt they want the country to be in charge of its own destiny.

The media coverage left them disengaged, all the economy with the truth, those 'rich toffs' wanting to maintain rich life styles.

They deplored the ridiculous amount of cash wasted moving the European Parliament between Brussels and Strasbourg, the EU corruption, huge expenses and money wasting.

The younger generation deplore Brussels edicts and lack of accountability, unelected officials and the weight of German influence and could see a United States of Europe with Berlin as its head – which would have made a mockery out of the lives of those who fought and died in two world wars.

Those who deplore the result of the referendum and blame the older generation for opting for democracy have the choice of living under EU rule anytime they like, ferries leave every day for France and I'm sure they will be welcomed into the new developing federal Europe.

Incidentally since the referendum Italy is in talks to bolster up its near bankrupt economy (so much for a healthy European economy) and the EU has had recent talks with Turkey about possible entry which I seem to remember wasn't on the cards till 2030.

How many more anti GB bills will be passed now we've opted to 'go it alone'?

WELL done for publicising the warning of the phone scam, as I was able to use the information today having read the article last week.

I have received bogus phone calls in the past, contacted my ISP/TSP but not had a response back that they were doing anything.

I understand that Action Fraud receive thousands of calls, so it is obviously a growing crime aimed at the more vulnerable in our society.

As they have an alert service the View from, as a vital line of communication for many people, could sign up to, so that the latest information could be relayed via your pages.

Weldmar rated outstanding

CARE provided by Weldmar Hospicecare has been rated as outstanding by health watchdogs.

Inspectors from the Care Quality Commission (CQC) praised the hospice's work in a recent report.

Caroline Hamblett, chief executive of Weldmar Hospicecare, said: "The rating of outstanding by the CQC is a fantastic result for Weldmar and, more importantly, a fantastic result for the people we care for. Patients are at the heart of all that Weldmar does, whether in our patients' homes, in the community hospitals, within our Wellbeing Centres across Dorset, or within Joseph Weld Hospice. We are proud and privileged to provide end of life care to support Dorset.

"We receive very generous support in return. We could not provide our care without local people and I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who helps make Weldmar so special; our volunteers, all of our staff, fellow healthcare professionals and supporters."

In its report, the commission said that "people and families received outstanding care from exceptional staff and volunteers who developed positive, caring and compassionate relationships with them", that "the service promoted a culture that was caring and person centred" and "staff worked together as a multidisciplinary team to provide seamless care for people".

The report also quoted patients and relatives. One said: "I can't believe the care they give, the attention to detail, the experience has changed my mind about where I want to have care at the end of my life. Far from being sad and tearful, it is happy, and staff have all the time in the world for you."

Another said: "Weldmar is not a sad place, we laugh and cry, it is not doom and gloom, we know what is in front of us. We know he will be looked after and they will be there for the bereaved as well, it is wonderful."

Stephen Baynard, chairman of Weldmar Hospicecare's board of trustees, said: "I, and all of the trustees of Weldmar, would like to congratulate all concerned for such an outstanding result."

"Our dedicated staff and team of tireless volunteers work together to provide exceptional care to the people of Dorset. I am proud to lead such an important organisation."

Sports day fun at Bradpole Pre-School

■ CROCODILE WALK: The blue team concentrate

■ Daisy receives her medal from Mrs May for scoring the most goals, whilst Preston won a medal for throwing the javelin the furthest

ONCE again Bradpole Pre-School's annual sports day held at the Sir John Colfox Academy was a huge success, with the children attempting a number of skills all based on testing their balance, visual and team bonding skills.

In front of proud parents and family they showed their ability in events ranging from throwing the foam javelin, beam balancing, goal scoring, bean bag races and basketball, to running races involving heats and a final.

The event was organised by Julia May, PE teacher at the Sir John Colfox Academy and involved and tutor group F7JCM who instructed and assisted the pupils together with the Pre-school staff.

Play Leader Kathryn Cosser said: "I would like to thank Julia for organising the event and her tutor group F7JCM, for the planning, setting up, packing away and supporting the children with the activities.

"They were amazing and the preschool children really enjoyed it."

At the end of an energetic morning, each child enjoyed an ice cream to cool down and presented Mrs May with some flowers to show their appreciation.

Nature Rocks returns to West Bay

THE Jurassic Coast Trust's Nature Rocks will be returning to West Bay this summer.

On August 11th and 12th, Bridport Museum and the trust will be offering two days of free family fun and an opportunity for people to learn about the coast, their natural environment and local history.

At Nature Rocks' opening day, Emerald Ant will be inviting visitors to dine inside the belly of a 35-foot iguanodon, in their new street theatre show.

The Iguanodon Restaurant is inspired by a real life Victorian banquet, where leading professors and palaeontologists discuss dinosaurs and feast on fossil-fuelled fun. There will be performances throughout the day.

Also appearing this year will be artist Darrell Wakelam, creating a mural which will explore rope and net manufacture and will appear in Bridport Museum's new galleries following their upcoming redevelopment.

Visitors can use clay to make models, and have a go at making things out of rope.

The Jurassic Coast Trust will be giving fossil demonstrations and local author Sam Scriven will be on hand to sign copies of his recent book, 'Fossil of the Jurassic Coast'.

Nichola Blackmore, assistant curator of Bridport Museum, said: "Bridport Museum is delighted to be involved with Nature Rocks, it is such a great way to get the community interested in their local environment and history.

"This year, the museum is really looking forward to celebrating a mural for our new galleries, including our lift and stairs.

"You will be able to find out about our exciting redevelopment plans at Nature Rocks."

Nature Rocks will be held at The Salt House, West Bay, and its surrounding lawn.

Guy Kerr of the Jurassic Coast Trust said: "Nature Rocks has become somewhat of a summer tradition for the Bridport area and we look forward to its return.

"We are really excited about sharing The Iguanodon Restaurant and its fascinating stories with the Jurassic Coast's residents and visitors alike."

DORSET'S rolling hills and moderate climate have seen its natural attributes again put to best use – this time by growing wine, writes Trevor Bevins.

The latest addition is Langham Wine which held its official opening at the weekend.

The vineyard can be found just off the Puddletown to Milborne St Andrew road, a few minutes' drive from Dorchester.

Using former farm buildings the winery produces a sparkling white and rosé wine from its 38,000 vines. The first of the high graft vines were planted across 30 hectares in 2009.

Guided and self-guided tours are now being offered from the site with a former milking parlour now being used for sales and tastings.

Director Justin Langham toured many of the world's wine regions and studied viticulture at Plumpton College in Sussex before embarking on the venture.

They produce a dry (brut) Classic Cuvée, a blend of Chardonnay, Pinot noir and Pinot meunier. Barrel fermentation in oak barrels from Burgundy, adds richness and depth. The wine is aged for 24 months on yeast lees and a further six months on cork before release.

Also produced is a Blanc de Blanc, made from 100 per cent estate grown Chardonnay and aged on lees for 36 months.

The vineyard's Rosé is 45 per cent Chardonnay, 40 per cent Pinot noir and 15 per cent Pinot meunier and is aged for 18 months on yeast lees.

The estate's wine maker is Daniel Ham, who while working as a marine biologist in New Zealand, developed a taste for fine wine and decided to retrain as a winemaker.

The Langham Wines are stocked by several local independent wine shops and can be found in gastro pubs and restaurants in the area.

They are also available direct from the estate, which can be found at Crawthorne Farm, DT2 7NG, just off the main Puddletown to Blandford road.

Stoke Abbott comes alive

STOKE Abbott's streets were lined with stalls, guests and music as hundreds descended on the village for their annual fair.

The clothes sale proved as popular as ever, as well as the cream teas, cakes and sandwiches in the village hall.

A highlight for many is the children's parade through the village – this year dressed as princes and princesses – to the well, where it was then blessed by the Reverend Daniel Ingles.

Organiser Catherine Leech said:

"From the traditional Sick Club parade that marked the opening of this year's street fair to the final cakes being devoured in the village hall, Stoke Abbott was a hive of activity, fun in the sun and entertainment throughout the afternoon with lots of happy visitors."

"After so much hard work, it is always such a thrill to see locals and holiday makers of all ages enjoy our unique event and, above all, for the entire village to come together to work their socks off to raise vital funds for St Mary's Church, the village hall, the Pilsdon community and Beaminster Playgroup.

"It is hard to pick out highlights but the children's fancy dress parade, led by our very own fairy godmother, was enchanting and it was wonderful to see the Bowditch family's beautiful wagons and vintage tractor for a piece of living village history."

"Thank you to everyone who came and the many in the village who made it happen."

Stepping Stones for preschool leavers

FRIENDS and family gathered at Bridport United Church earlier this month for the Stepping Stones Preschool leavers service.

The Reverend Peter Clark welcomed the guests and presented the children with books as leavers presents.

Children sang a range of songs before preschool leader Eira Tuck thanked everyone involved with the preschool wishing the best of luck to the 13 leavers going on to primary school.

She said: "A few thank yous, firstly the children...

and thank you to the parents, families and friends for being here to support the children.

"Today also provides us with the opportunity to say thank you to all the people who support us here in their various roles within the preschool.

"We extend our thanks to you, parents, carers, grandparents and friends... for the encouragement you continue to give to your children and I am sure you will join in with me to wish them every success and happiness as they take their next step along their journey of learning and life."

West Bay park-and-ride returns

BRIDPORT Town Council together with West Dorset District Council has launched the annual summer park and ride scheme between West Bay and Bridport, which is operating again during the summer holidays on Wednesdays and Saturdays until September 3rd.

The shuttle service runs from the main West Bay Road car park to the Spar shop in East Street, Bridport, approximately every 20 minutes, from 9.15am at West Bay, with the last bus returning to the car park from the Spar shop at 3pm.

Cllr Anne Rickard, deputy town mayor, and her escort Cllr Dave Rickard joined the first trip from West Bay on Saturday morning, getting the scheme underway for the coming season.

Cllr Anne Rickard said: "This has proved over several years to be very popular with both residents and visitors to the area and means that traffic congestion, parking and also pollution is eased in the centre of Bridport on its two market days, which is when Bridport is busiest.

"Users can buy a return bus ticket for an entire family and park the car for four hours for just £2. If that is not a bargain, I don't know what is!"

Tickets can be bought at the special ticket machine in West Bay Road car park.

The scheme is part funded by West Dorset District Council and Bridport Town Council.

New bell blessed at Catholic Church

AROUND one hundred people gathered outside the newly extended and refurbished Catholic Church in Victoria Grove earlier this month to watch Father Richard Meyer bless the church's new bell.

It was a unique occasion, with the priest blessing the bell for his church which was given to him in memory of his late wife Jan – given that most Catholic priests do not marry.

The bell was supplied by Bridport's own Nicholson Engineering, of St Swithin's Road, made of bronze and tuned to D. It was cast in Holland and the electromagnetic strike mechanism came from Italy.

It bears the maker's name as well as Jan

Meyer's own name and dates, and the inscription from the psalms: 'Come, ring out our joy to the Lord'.

The bell is programmed to ring before services and also strikes the Angelus – a prayer said in honour of the Incarnation of Jesus Christ – at 8am, 12noon and 6pm – three rings of three followed by one of nine, in a traditional Catholic custom that proclaims Mary's motherhood of the Christ child.

After the bell's blessing, a party was held in the new church hall, with an opportunity for parishioners to look around their new-look church, which was used for the first time the following Sunday, July 17th.

'Fabulous' exhibition at Eype

HUNDREDS of people travelled to Eype Centre for the Arts for the annual Art@Eype exhibition.

Eleven of Dorset's finest artists came together to offer visitors a display of a range of artworks, from paintings and photographs to stained glass and sculpture.

Exhibiting were painters David Brooke, Brian Cocks, Jane Huxtable Brown, Zee Jones, Zara McQueen and Elizabeth Sporne, sculptors Rachel Newham and Toni West, stained glass artist Steve Rose, creative photographer Sally Davies and artist-blacksmith Colleen du Pon.

Elizabeth Sporne, one of the event organisers, said: "Art@Eype's unique selling point – apart from the amazing setting, of course – has been that all participating artists and makers are on hand ready to chat about the work on show, but the cumulative effect of the exhibition comes to more than that. It has got real atmosphere."

"The church building itself with its gorgeous stained glass and its location looking over the sea, our pop-up café's lovely food and drink, the refectory-style table stretching along the nave creating a ready-made social hub – it is very friendly and welcoming, both to visitors and not least to each year's fresh intake of artists.

■ SOME of Dorset's finest artists (pictured) came together to put on another successful Art@Eype exhibition

"We – the current core being Sally Davies, who started Art@Eype back in 2010, David Brooke and I – try very hard to draw in the right mix of other artists, aiming for maximum diversity with maximum quality. But the standard, and how the artists' very diverse displays gel together, really does seem to get better with every show.

"This year's feedback has been wonderful – one visitor's post to the Art@Eype Facebook page concluded: 'It is a fabulous exhibition'."

"So after an intense but rewarding few days, it is back to regular work – until most of us pop up again next month for Bridport Open Studios!"

■ PUPILS at St Mary's Primary School have been awarded a Green Flag award for their work as an Eco School

Eco Schools' Green Flag award for St Mary's

STAFF and pupils at St Mary's Primary School are celebrating after they were given a Green Flag award. They were presented with the coveted award for the hard work they have done for the environment as an Eco School.

Eco Schools is an international award programme that encourages schools to be more sustainable, providing a framework to help embed these principles into school life.

The eco committee meets weekly and the children have written an action plan that allowed them to plan what they wanted to achieve and monitor their success.

The children have improved outdoor learning areas and encouraged greater bio diversity through developing the school pond and wildlife areas. They have reduced energy consumption and waste through composting and recycling and have been helping the local community by litter picking.

Teacher Claire Legg, said: "The Eco Schools framework involves the whole school and the wider community."

"The committee is pupil led, children take the lead which really empowers them. It allows them to feel they can make a difference, not just locally but also in wider environmental issues."

Twinnings hold minute's silence for Nice during Bastille Day picnic

FAMILIES and friends came together to mark Bastille Day with a picnic in the Millennium Green, organised by members of Bridport Twinning Association.

Guests were treated to live music from local jazz singer Julie Dunn while they enjoyed al fresco dining and wine from a pop-up bar.

Mike Farmer, chairman of Bridport Twinning Association, said: "It was great, it really was lovely and the musicians were wonderful..

"There was a lot of young French people who came, some were mothers with small children.

"We had a minute's silence for Nice and all the French people came together to sing La Marseillaise.

"We had 60 or 70 people and it was a lovely

Cliff fall warning

BEACH-goers are being warned to stay safe on the coast after a rock fall on East Beach, West Bay, last week.

A spokesperson for West Bay Coastguard said: "We want you and your family to stay safe this summer.

"Our coastline is an ever changing environment. Coastal erosion, cliff falls and landslides are a natural part of this and members of the public should be vigilant.

"Never walk under the cliffs, stay away from the cliff edge when walking on the coastal path and always keep your dog on a lead.

"Do not climb on cliff falls as the rocks and debris may be unstable and cause injury."

Down at the Riverside this summer

WEST Bay is always special but when the sun is shining it really is at its best. Last week was very hot and sunny and we are all keeping our fingers crossed that this will continue for the rest of July and August.

In August, to accommodate increased demand, we will be opening every day (except Mondays) for lunch and dinner – including Sunday evenings – which can be served in the restaurant or al fresco on our lawn overlooking the River Brit and looking towards the harbour, if the weather is good. Our menu changes daily depending on the day's catch and market availability, however we do have sample menus available to view on our website, www.the.fishrestaurant-westbay.co.uk. Booking is always advisable, call 01308 422011.

For the first time on Sunday afternoons (weather permitting) from 2.30–6.30 pm we will be serving a seafood BBQ on the lawn – booking will not be necessary, just turn up to enjoy the best local fish and shellfish cooked freshly for you by one of our chefs from our award winning kitchen.

Neil Chilcott and the Riverside Team look forward to welcoming you and wish everyone a very happy summer!

St Mary's School celebrates 25 years at site

FAMILIES, friends, old colleagues and pupils were welcomed at St Mary's Primary School in Bridport to celebrate their 25th anniversary on the Skilling Hill site.

Children performed dances and songs – even one with sign language – to the guests before enjoying many of the games on offer.

A room of old photographs and newspaper cuttings was set up for people to wander down memory lane and find themselves or family members in the old school photos.

Headteacher Helen Farmer said: "It was lovely to open the school to so many old and new friends and to share with them and our children this very special event."

STONE ME!

By Abi Jackson, Press Association

SO it seems the weather gods finally got the memo that it's summer - hurrah! Of course, no sooner does the sun come out, than those heat-wave health warnings come flooding in.

All very sensible - skin cancer rates have seen alarming rises over recent decades in the UK, and if you're not careful, heat exhaustion can turn into a medical emergency, so slap on the SPF, don't overdo it in the midday sun, and stay well hydrated.

And, if you need another reason to hit that eight-glasses-a-day water intake minimum that experts advise - consider this: dehydration could be putting you at risk of kidney stones...

What are kidney stones?

As the name suggests, kidney stones are small (or sometimes not so small!) stones that form in the kidneys. There are different types, but usually they're made up of deposits of calcium, ammonia, uric acid (one of the by-products from when the body breaks down food) and the amino acid cysteine. The medical term for them is nephrolithiasis.

Who gets them?

As Mr Vivek Wadhwa, a consultant urologist at Spire Parkway Hospital in Solihull (www.spirehealthcare.com), notes, kidney stones are quite common and seen across all ages, from children through to the elderly. "But the peak age is about 20-50," he adds. NHS figures suggest men are slightly more prone to them, with around three in 20 men, and two in 20 women, developing them at some stage. "And we tend to see patterns within certain occupations, and also geographical locations and climates," adds Wadhwa. "For example, taxi drivers, chefs - people who tend to go long hours without drinking. And the highest incidence of kidney stones at the moment is in Dubai; you've got hot weather so people get dehydrated, and they tend to eat a lot of animal protein."

What causes them?

As Wadhwa explains, while kidney stones can be common, there's a reason some people are more prone to them. "One of the main causes of kidney stones is not drinking enough fluid," he says. Put simply, fluids help flush the kidneys and keep things in healthy working order, while diets high in animal proteins can lead to an increase in uric acid, which may cause stones. Higher rates can run in families too, and certain medications are also associated with kidney stones. Sometimes pre-existing conditions, certain inherited conditions or a history of kidney problems can also mean you're more at risk.

Are they really that painful?

Some stones are so tiny, they can easily go unnoticed, but generally, they are known to be extremely painful. Those tiny tubes aren't designed to have hard, bulky stones pass through them, so they can trigger an intense pain response that spreads across the back and abdomen. "Ladies always say it's more painful than childbirth," says Wadhwa. "It's excruciating if the stone lodges in the urethra. The kidney's trying to excrete urine, and it can't. The main symptom is a sharp intermittent pain in the back, radiating around to the front."

Can it be serious?

While agonising, often kidney stones are a short-term problem and not serious. However, Wadhwa stresses it's important for anybody who experiences extreme, acute pain to seek medical attention. Firstly, "you still have to rule out other things, like appendicitis, pancreatitis, ectopic pregnancy, aneurism... Quite often, until we've done a scan, we don't know what we're dealing with."

Secondly, if a kidney stone causes a blockage or obstruction, this can rapidly turn very serious. "If you get a complete blockage then the kidney has nowhere to drain and you can get an acute infected obstructed system, and people do die from that," Wadhwa says. So if you also have a high temperature and fever and are very unwell, it's important to get to hospital urgently.

How are kidney stones treated?

Treatment usually starts, says Wadhwa, with adequate fluid and pain relief. Often this is all that's required, but more problematic and larger stones might need further treatment. "If the kidney's obstructed, you have to de-obstruct the kidney by putting a tube in the back, and then you have to deal with the stone - it all depends on the size and position," Wadhwa explains. "If the stone's in the kidney and it's small, usually it's shock wave lithotripsy (ESWL, a non-invasive treatment that breaks up stones with shockwaves), and patients will be in and out within an hour."

"Options for bigger stones include using a laser to break them up, and if the stone's really big, then you do percutaneous nephrolithotomy (PCNL), which means putting a tube directly into the kidney, breaking up the stone and sucking it out. This used to mean cutting open the tummy, but now it can all be done with minimally invasive techniques."

How can I prevent them?

Once you've had a kidney stone, you are at greater risk of having more. However, much of the advice for avoiding kidney stones applies to everybody, since they can be so common. "In the old days, we used to tell patients things like, 'Don't drink milk, avoid dairy products etc', but we don't tend to do that any more," says Wadhwa. "What we do say is it's about a healthy diet, plenty of fluids, high fibre and low salt - those are the main things. I tell my patients to drink at least two to three litres of fluid a day."

Memory Walk for Kristy's dad

A BRIDPORT resident is helping to raise awareness and as much money as she can to help the Alzheimer's Society.

Kristy Stordy will be staging a Memory Walk from Bridport to Nettlecombe to help the charity close to her heart.

In early 2011, Kristy's dad Jon Lee was diagnosed with vascular dementia, heart breaking news for both her and the family.

Kristy said: "As a family it was devastating news. We watched a man who entertained hundreds every night as an entertainer, a very talented musician who owned stables and was riding horses for over 40 years, suddenly forgetting how to tie his shoelaces and we all noticed little things here and there.

"Sadly Dad's dementia progressed very quickly and nothing prepared us for how heart breaking watching someone you love so much deteriorate and forget who we were.

"I didn't know much about dementia before our dad was diagnosed but it is quite possibly the cruellest thing to happen to a person.

In November last year, Kristy's dad caught pneumonia and the family began to prepare for losing him.

Kristy added: "Somehow, being the incredibly strong man dad is, he came through it, but at a price and he has been bedridden ever since. The only movement he has is in his hands.

■ BRIDPORT resident Kristy Stordy will be taking part in a Memory Walk to raise money for the Alzheimer's Society after her dad was diagnosed with dementia in 2011

"Dad's wishes were to remain at home so my mum cares for him 24/7, along with the help of carers and, very sadly now, Marie Curie hospice nurses."

Kristy will be taking part in a Memory Walk, an idea from the Alzheimer's Society to help raise awareness and money for the charity, and she has already received a fantastic reaction from the public.

She added: "The money raised is going towards raising awareness and paying for treatment for dementia patients so that maybe, just one day, a world without dementia might be achievable.

"We set a £500 target to reach in two months but in the first week of my Just Giving page being set up, because of everyone's generosity, we have already reached our £500 target. It is just incredible, we have now put our target up to £750!

"It is hard to be positive in our situation but on the day of our walk it will be a day full of laughs and great energy.

"I think this is the start of many fundraising ideas from our family for Alzheimer's Society."

The walk takes place on Saturday, September 17th at 10.30am from Bridport Co-op to the Marquis of Lorne pub in Nettlecombe.

■ PUPILS at St Catherine's Primary School were sent off on holiday with something that wasn't homework – but rather a piece of fruit.

Thanks to the generosity of Co-op, each children started their summer holiday with a healthy snack.

The school has adopted a healthy-eating policy to encourage sensible eating and drinking, so children were each sent home with a piece of fruit – donated by Co-op – at the end of term. This was a reminder for them to make good food choices over the summer holidays.

The children want to say a big thank you to Co-op for their healthy treats, pictured.

Model railway club's annual exhibition this Saturday

MEMBERS of the Bridport and District Model Railway Club will be holding their annual summer exhibition in Bridport United Church Hall, East Street, this Saturday, July 30th, from 10am to 4pm.

Visitors will be able to view a wide variety of layouts in various gauges and themes, from both local exhibitors and those coming from farther afield.

The Chard Model Railway Club will be exhibiting their new layout entitled 'Beaminster', which will provide some local interest.

In this year of the Queen's 90th birthday there will be a unique display and a representative model of the Royal Train, giving visitors an insight of how it was used in conjunction with a royal visit.

The Bridport club's layout based on the branch line from West Bay to Maiden Newton, together with some of the member's layouts, will also be on show.

Several other layouts will be depicting the British, Continental and American scenes with a wide variety of stock from different periods of time.

There will be demonstrations, trade stands and refreshments available throughout the day and everyone is welcome to attend.

Project asks: how can Bridport feed itself?

A NEW project is looking into Bridport's vibrant food culture to bring together data, research and various perspectives on local food.

The 'How Can Bridport Feed Itself?' project, part of the legacy of Communities Living Sustainably in Dorset (CLS), sets out to quantify the current value of our local food economy, identifying the number and types of jobs in food, and weighing up the economic benefit to the town if Bridport's food system was more local.

Candida Blaker, project co-ordinator, said: "We lack hard, contemporary data on the real economic value of Bridport's food sector. Where do people spend their money on food? How much of this is local food from local businesses? And what is the potential shift towards a more circular economy?"

"This would keep more of the money we spend on food circulating locally, thus increasing levels of income and creating more jobs. These are the kinds of questions we will be asking."

Building on existing research, and on community engagement work by Linda Hull on the People's Wishlist for the Future of Food and the Spend a Tenner Locally campaign, CLS partners are now seeking to engage businesses directly on what would make the food economy healthier.

Jonny Gordon Farleigh, project researcher, said: "In particular, we are keen to examine how the lively food sector here could offer more high quality opportunities for the youth.

"There is great potential to stem the flow of our young people away from the area by investing in strengthening our local food system."

The project aims to: provide evidence for strategic plans for food and drink locally, publish baseline data and a set of indicators to show change over time, identify activities to take advantage of economic opportunities within the next three years, strengthen and enhance local supply chains, build a coalition of partners to turn these opportunities into reality and help secure investment.

Linda Hull, project researcher, said: "We hope the How Can Bridport Feed Itself study will put the food economy and food security firmly on the agenda and dovetail into Bridport's new economic plan.

"It is very timely work as we begin to grapple with the post Brexit implications for food and we hope it will generate project initiatives for inclusion in future funding bids."

To answer 'How Can Bridport Feed Itself?' and other questions, CLS will be staging a stakeholder forum in September in the centre of Bridport to hear from various unique perspectives and to pool expertise.

Anyone who has access to data that could be helpful, or would like to get involved, email candida.blaker@dorsetcommunityaction.org.uk or call 07917 476196.

Hank Wangford to return for Hat Festival

THIS year's Bridport Hat Festival organisers are delighted to announce that Hank Wangford and the Lost Cowboys will again kick the festival off to a great start on Friday, September 2nd at the Electric Palace.

Hank is an authentic country singer and songwriter. He is renowned for his originality and long years on the country music scene and will be accompanied by his four hard-core country musicians, including BJ Cole, one of the world's greatest pedal steel guitar players.

There will be a celebratory party atmosphere in the Electric Palace with optional vintage dress, encouraging guests to pick a decade and dress glamorously.

All proceeds will go to the festival's chosen charities, Brain Tumour Research and the Brain Injury Rehabilitation Trust (BIRT).

Majorettes in Bucky Doo Square

MEMBERS of the Port Bredy Allstar majorettes will be performing in Bucky Doo Square this Saturday (July 30th) from 12.30pm to 4.30pm.

They will be raising funds for their trip to Jersey to take part in the Battle of Flowers parade and new equipment.

MEMBERS and guests of Bridport Rotary Club came together for Bridport Inner Wheel's summer lunch at Salway Village Hall this month, pictured.

They enjoyed a meal mainly provided by the ladies of Bridport Inner Wheel and Morrisons had generously given strawberries and cream, which were very much enjoyed.

A grand draw was organised by Rotarian Tony Williams and Mrs Williams, which raised over £300, with many local businesses and individuals donating prizes.

It was the first event of the year for newly installed president Roger Stoodley and Mrs Stoodley, although he had previously served as president of Bridport Rotary Club in 2008.

Mr Stoodley said that the £1,300 profit from the event would be shared with Bridport Inner Wheel and donated to rotary and inner wheel charities.

Steve Knightley to play live in Thorncombe

Steve Knightley

STEVE KNIGHTLEY is the song writing force behind the phenomenally successful acoustic duo Show of Hands. Ahead of their headline appearance at Sidmouth Folk Week, Steve will perform a solo gig in Thorncombe, on Saturday, July 30th.

As well as a fine singer and musician, Steve's songs 'Country Life' and 'Roots' were both nominated for the coveted Best Original Song category in the BBC Radio2 Folk Awards, which Steve won with his widely acclaimed song aimed at bankers and MPs – 'Arrogance, Ignorance and Greed'.

Show of Hands are a familiar and hugely popular West Country band, and Steve himself is known to many in West Dorset having lived here and taught at Beaminster School. Their annual one-day festival at Abbotsbury Gardens is always sold out, and they have just announced that tickets for their gig at the royal Albert Hall next April are now on sale.

Sponsored by local skin care company Lovegrove Essentials Ltd, Steve Knightley In Concert starts at 8pm on Saturday, July 30th. Gates open at 7 pm and guests can bring a picnic. Tea and cakes will be served during the interval. It is a strictly ticket only event and numbers are limited to 50. Tickets can be bought online at www.lovegroveessentials.com or call 07541 587 668 for more information.

Hear him Stompin'

STOMPIN'
Dave Allen returns to Bridport Electric

Palace on Thursday, August 11th. Described by Maverick Magazine as "one of the world's greatest performers", Stompin' Dave performs bluegrass, blues, vintage country, folk and rock 'n' roll. He sings and plays guitar, banjo, fiddle, harmonica, piano and tap dances in an old-time flat-footing style, often whilst playing an instrument.

With twenty five years of performing experience Dave has worked exclusively as a musician and performed across the UK and beyond including major festivals such as Glastonbury, Bestival, and Camp Bestival.

A former member of former UK blues band of the year The Producers, Stompin' Dave was nominated for a British Blues Award in the acoustic act category 2014. Winner of the FOAOTMAD old-time banjo competition 2011 and 2013.

Dave has stomped onto the line-up of some top folk festivals including Cork Folk Festival, Warwick Folk Festival, Towersey Folk Festival, Priddy Folk Festival and many other festivals, and clubs. Dave has been invited to play at both The Boogaloo Blues Festival on the Isle of Wight and The Great Dorset Steam Fair for over seven years in succession.

Dave has performed many concerts in art centres and theatres alongside touring musicians from the USA including the legendary Whitetop Mountain Band from Virginia, W.C. Handy award winner Guy Davis, International Bluegrass Achievement award winner Alice Gerrard, and Jack Lawrence musical partner of guitar great Doc Watson as well as many others.

Stompin' Dave has been billed as a headline act at festivals, these have included The Cornish Folk Festival, National Banjo Day and The Tolpuddle Martyrs Festival. He has made several visits to the USA including competing in the US national bluegrass banjo, and international flat-picking guitar contests.

The past few years has seen teaming up with award winning drummer Sam Kelly, rock n roll artist Earl Jackson and top London hoedown band Cut A Shine. It has been three years since Dave has performed a solo concert in his home town of Bridport.

This summer Dave was invited by world renowned rock guitarist Jeff Beck to perform at his new album showcase.

Tickets are £10.50 (£10 + 50p booking fee) in advance £13 on door. Buy online from www.electricpalace.org.uk/music, from Bridport Electric Palace Box Office 01308 428354 or Bridport Tourist Information Centre 01308 424901.

Circus Wonderland comes back to Bridport

BRITAIN'S most magical circus is returning to Asker Meadows with high flying acrobats, unicyclists and clowns promising thrills and spills for all the family.

Appearing in the UK for the first time, the Chalimero Troupe will be launched like lightning from the springboard, flipping and flying across the arena, whilst one wheeled wonders Duo Hatton will dazzle audiences with a unique unicycling union of breathtaking balance and perilously poised perfection.

Daring Italian trapeze stars Duo Roma defy gravity in a harrowing high altitude heart stopper, and there will be a special appearance from a Robot Transformer.

Amidst the action and excitement, award winning clowns Kakehole and Mr Popol are returning to scale new summits of silliness with their crazy comic capers.

Mr Popol, who is also known by day as Circus Director Paul Carpenter, is particularly pleased to be returning to Bridport. "This will be our third visit to the town, and we always receive a great welcome," he explained. "We have built up a very loyal following in Bridport as our show is really aimed at the family audience with lots of comedy and participation, as well as the more daring acts that will have you on the edge of your seat!"

Huge fans of the television series "Broadchurch", fans Kakehole and Mr Popol will be spending any spare time checking out local locations used in the series.

Circus Wonderland is appearing in Asker Meadows, Sea Road South, from Wednesday August 3rd until Sunday August 7th.

Show times are weekdays at 3pm and 7pm, Saturday at 2pm & 5pm, and Sunday at 2pm.

For further information about the show visit www.circuswonderland.co.uk or contact the box office on 07531 612240.

Win free tickets

To celebrate their return to the town Circus Wonderland are offering reader's of the View From a free family ticket, valid for two adults and three children in the ringside seats worth £72.

To win this free ticket to see this wonderful spectacle of live entertainment that is all too rare in this country nowadays, all you have to do is answer the following question:

"What is the name of Kakehole and Mr Popol's favourite television series filmed in this area?"

Post your answer to Circus Competition View From, Unit 3, St Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset DT7 3DB, or you can enter by e-mail by sending the answer together with your name, address and contact number to broom2006@btinternet.com.

Entries close at noon THIS FRIDAY, July 29th and the family chosen at random by Kakehole will be notified later that day to arrange when you wish to come.

So here's your chance to catch this unique opportunity and enjoy some good old family fun.

Miracle Theatre's the Magnificent Three is coming to Lyme Regis

A rooting-tooting toe-tappin' Western

HOLD onto your horses award winning Miracle Theatre are bringing the Wild West to Marine Theatre.

The Magnificent Three is a rootin' tootin' comedy spaghetti western performed in the beautiful outdoor setting of the Marine Theatre.

Inspired by the stories of Zane Grey and countless interchangeable B movie plots, this wild west tale has been written & directed by Bill Scott with music by Tom Adams.

Heading west across Dead Man's Prairie, the trail hits a watering hole called Hope Springs. Not a lot ever happened here: mostly lone-some strangers, minding their own business, passing on through but then word got out that the railroad was coming and the town got a whole lot wilder. Seems even most trusted folk can't always be counted on when there's money to be made and power to be had...

Gather up your posse it's time to head out to the Wild Frontier with award-winning Miracle for a rootin'-tooting', side-splittin', finger-clickin', toe-tappin', saloon-door-swingin', double-cross-dressin', Hoe-down dancin', quick-draw slinging, Spaghetti Western adventure...YEEHAW

Two talented trios team up to deliver this silly spaghetti western. Miracle regulars Cat Lake, Hannah Stephens, Rebecca Rowe, Ben Ker-now and Ciaran Clarke are joined by Jason Squibb for this summer 2016 outdoor tour.

Miracle's open-air theatre productions have become a 'must do' summer activity with hundreds of people enjoying Miracle's shows in stunning locations.

Bill Scott, Artistic Director of Miracle Theatre said of the show: "Open air performances are a real joy ... you can sit where you want, eat what you want, wear whatever you like, it's a very relaxed and enjoyable experience. Every night is different, each setting is transformed as night falls; the actors can never be sure what to expect and must be ready to respond to a dramatic moonrise, a sudden shower or a wild animal trying to get in on the act, there's nothing quite like it for players and audience alike - it is a genuine shared experience."

Accompanied by the strains of country music, reinvented by Tom Adams, The Magnificent Three is comical look at gender politics and anarchy, set among endless prairies, swinging bar doors and smoking guns - with not a horse in sight... yeehaw!

The show comes to the Marine Theatre on Wednesday, August 10th and Thursday, August 11th

Church Fete and Fun Dog Show

The Best in the West!

THE amazing Burton Bradstock Church Fete attracts each year an enormous number of visitors. It is said that people book their holidays around the date of this hugely popular Fete. It includes some wonderful games and attractions. As well as a perfectly performed Punch & Judy and the spectacular sounds of the St Swithun's Band, there will be the ever-popular Fun Dog Show, with classes such as Waggiest Tail, Best re-homed dog/bitch and the Best Six Legs!

The Church will look magnificent with its display of floral arrangements, this year, A Royal Celebration of Flowers. Climbing the Tower will be on offer, affording 360o views of coast and countryside. Learning about the 17th century bells and the mechanism of the 18th century clock is not to be missed.

The Burton Bradstock Church Fete will be held in St Mary's Rectory Garden on Thursday, August 4th 2016, starting at 2pm.

The traditional fete will have the customary features of an afternoon jam-packed with things to see, to buy, to watch and to take part in. For the children there will be face painting and all sorts of games.

This popular annual event is also the place for the adults to browse for a book, pick up a plant, purchase a preserve, choose a cake and chat over a cup of tea. Come and join the family fun. Parking is free.

Jon Richardson returns to Bridport for Arts Centre show

COMEDIAN Jon Richardson will be coming to Bridport Arts Centre on October 26th as he prepares for his latest UK tour.

Away from his live stand up, the British Comedy Award 2013 Nominee is best known as team captain on 8 Out Of 10 Cats. He is massively in demand for television and radio appearances and his recent TV credits include Have I Got News For You, Live At The Apollo, Channel 4's Comedy Gala Live At The 02.

A regular on the stand-up circuit, Jon's first gig was in 2003 where he won his heat of the BBC New Comedy Talent Search. After completing a 60 date UK with Alan Carr in 2006, Jon won Best Breakthrough Act at the 2007 Chortle Awards and went on to receive a Best Newcomer nomination for his show Spatula Pad at the 2007 Edinburgh Fringe Festival. This was followed in 2008 with a successful Edinburgh run of his second solo show Dogmatic and a subsequent Edinburgh Comedy Award best show nomination in 2009 for his third Edinburgh show, This Guy at Night.

Jon has also made appearances on numerous radio shows, including And The Winner Is (BBC Radio 2, hosted by Matt Lucas), Act Your Age (BBC Radio 4), The Museum Of Curiosity (BBC Radio 4) and is also a regular contributor on Five Live's Fighting Talk. He has also hosted his own Sunday morning radio show on BBC6 Music.

Jon is also a talented writer and contributor to national newspapers, most notably penning a cover article for the Guardian's Weekend Magazine for its Valentine's Day issue.

Tickets for the show are on sale now, costing £14, available from www.bridport-arts.com or by calling 01308 424204

Wondering back to the era of rock 'n' roll

THE UK's number one tribute to the music of the 50s and 60s – The Wonderers – will play live at Winstons in Seaton on Friday, August 12th.

The Wonderers not only replicate the sounds of the era, but also the look, and have been wowing audiences up and down the country. They are looking forward to playing their first ever South West gig.

Roll back the years to the songs of rock 'n' roll legends including Elvis, Buddy Holly, Little Richard, Eddie Cochran, Big Bopper and many more.

Winstons Manager Chris Oakes said: "this is a big event and is selling quickly even before we advertised, so don't miss out".

The show starts at 9pm. Tickets are £10 in advance and £13 on the night, and can be bought from Winstons, Beer Village Stores, or Ax Music, Axminster.

The Wonderers

Come and have the Time of Your Life!

Green Date

AS PART of Winstons' double header music weekend, the world's number one tribute to Californian punk-rockers Green Day, 'Green Date', will be playing live.

Green Date have been endorsed by Green Day themselves. Green Date frontman Bille Joe says: "We are gonna shake Winstons to the rafters - you ain't seen nothin' like this!".

Having played together for several years, they have built an excellent live reputation and regularly play to 15,000+ people in this country and around the world.

Winstons manager Chris Oakes said: "this is the biggest act we have put on so far and we have sold over half the tickets, this will be a sellout".

Expect to here all the classics from 'Basket Case', 'Time of Your Life', 'American Idiot', and many more.

The show starts at 9pm and tickets are £10 in advance, £13 on the night and are available from Winstons, Beer Village Stores, or Ax Music, Axminster.

Bridport Youth Dance

SUMMERTHING Children's Art Festival presents Small Things - creative art workshops and performances for under 12's based on the theme Fantasy. Events will be taking place in The Community Orchard and various venues around Bridport, the week of Monday, August 1st to Friday, August 5th.

Workshops through the week will include: storytelling with Martin Maudsley for 7 - 12 year olds. A full day workshop by forest school leaders Sarah Churchill and Rachel Green, in the beautiful discovery area at Thorne's School, Litton Cheney for 5 - 12 year olds. Making workshops led by local artist Darrell Wakelam, Iron Giants for ages 5 - 7 years and Wild Things for ages 8 - 12 years. A dance workshop by Commotion Dance for under 12's and a fantastical theatre workshop for 8 - 12's with theatre practitioner, Tessa Bide.

Tessa will also be reading extracts from her beautiful story book The Tap Dancing Mermaid at 10.30am on Thursday at Waterstone's bookstore. This book reading is open to anyone aged 3 to 103 years. Performances in the week will include: Little Artist: Big Painting by Commotion Dance at 11am and 2.30pm on Wednesday and Tessa Bide's Arnold's Big Adventure at 11am and 1pm on Friday. Both of these will be held in the Community Orchard. Small Things programmes are out now and can be found at Bridport Tourist Information Centre, Fruits Of The Earth and Waterstone's bookstore.

Small Things is an off shoot project of Summerthing Children's Art Festival established in 1994 by Nikki Northover.

To book, take your filled out programme to Bridport Tourist Information Centre.

Small Things is supported by West Dorset District Council, Bridport Town Council, The Rex Trevett Appeal Fund, Bridport Lions Club, Am-safe and Brit Valley Rotary and is co-ordinated by Nikki Northover with Aimee Symes and Sarah Churchill.

Can you be persuaded?

THE Chamber Opera Chicago's new original musical adaptation of Persuasion brings a vibrant twist to Jane Austen's novel and features songs from Jane Austen's manuscripts and music of the era. The production also features Regency costumes, chamber orchestra, projected scenery and Irish dancers!

Anne Elliot has rejected a proposal of marriage from the one man she truly loved, Captain Frederick Wentworth. She was persuaded by her god-mother that Captain Wentworth was unworthy, but after a separation of almost a decade, he returns from sea with both rank and fortune. The tables have turned, Anne is nearly an old maid and her once rich family is on the verge of bankruptcy. Can Anne win him back? Can he forgive her for breaking off their engagement rather than following her heart? And can their lost love be rekindled?

One of the most powerful love stories ever written, this authentic rendering adaptation will transport you back in time!

Persuasion will be performed at the Marine Theatre this Friday, July 29th, and Saturday, July 30th at 7.30pm each night. Tickets are £11/£9, available from www.marinetheatre.com, or by calling Lyme Regis TIC on 01297 442138.

"DIFFERENT ROADS SOMETIMES LEAD TO THE SAME CASTLE"

IF you follow Game of Thrones you might recognise the quote but I think it sums up the post Brexit mood quite well. Whether you voted remain or leave we are where we are and there is a collective desire to arrive at the same place. A stronger, stable and healthy economy is the desire of everyone.

Research from Symonds & Sampson shows that we are on the right course with more sales agreed should remain constant, unlike in 2008/9 when the banks were in deep trouble. This means we would expect house prices to remain stable as demand persists and new supply is historically weak. This said, with uncertainty comes hesitation and we may see the number of transactions cool as people feel less urgency to move or climb the ladder. So while the basic need to buy and sell will keep the market predictable for the majority of buyers, there have been some interesting upshots from the Brexit vote.

Our sales throughout Dorset, Devon, Somerset, Wiltshire and Hampshire have been strong, £45 million agreed since 24 June, with buyers continuing to move from the South East and London but it is the enquiries from ex pats in Europe that have been most interesting. Many UK citizens living in France, for example, are nervous about President Hollande and the taxes that he might impose on them.

A welcome by-product of the Brexit vote may well be that a root and branch review of the structural housing deficit is high on the political agenda, leading to a more creative and concerted long-term strategy to build more suitable homes. The abandonment of the 2020 target for eradicating the budgetary deficit may give more funding options than previously existed to make some serious inroads million agreed since 24 June, with buyers continuing to move from the South East and London but it is the enquiries from ex pats in Europe that have been most interesting. Many UK citizens living in France, for example, are nervous about President Hollande and the taxes that he might impose on them.

So the current sentiment seems more concerned with day to day practicalities of life than the uncontrollable machinations of global politics. There can be no doubt that impacts to the cost of borrowing, employment, skilled migration for the house building sector, internal UK politics and EU deals will all influence the housing market but with a new prime minister who appears strong, and certainly no pussy cat despite the kitten heels, it seems that we are back on the right road.

A welcome by-product of the Brexit vote may well be that a root and branch review of the structural housing deficit is high on the political agenda, leading to a more creative and concerted long-term strategy to build more suitable homes. The abandonment of the 2020 target for eradicating the budgetary deficit may give more funding options than previously existed to make some serious inroads

So the current sentiment seems more concerned with day to day practicalities of life than the uncontrollable machinations of global politics. There can be no doubt that impacts to the cost of borrowing, employment, skilled migration for the house building sector, internal UK politics and EU deals will all influence the housing market but with a new prime minister who appears strong, and certainly no pussy cat despite the kitten heels, it seems that we are back on the right road.

KATE WISCOMBE PROMOTION

JEREMY Smith, Partner of Symonds & Sampson in Beaminster is seen here with Kate Wiscombe who has recently received a promotion to Senior Negotiator. Jeremy commented 'Kate Wiscombe has been with us for some time and is an integral part of the branches continued success and this promotion is richly deserved'. Kate commented 'I am absolutely thrilled to be given this promotion and I would like to say a big thank you to all of Symonds & Sampson clients, both past present and future and without you giving us your properties to sell, this promotion will not have been possible'. Jeremy added 'if you are considering selling or are indeed on the market without success, why not contact us for your free valuation on 01308 863100'.

JEREMY Smith, Partner of Symonds & Sampson Beaminster, is seen her with a delighted Mrs. Roy who has very kindly bought the office a bottle of champagne in recognition of their performance with regard to selling her and her husband's property in Beaminster, also their onward purchase through Symonds & Sampson in Broadwindsor.

Emily commented 'I cannot speak highly enough of Jeremy and his award winning team as they sold my property for a good price very quickly and were helpful in an awkward transaction with the move to my new home in Broadwindsor. I must say myself and my family are absolutely delighted and I would certainly recommend Symonds & Sampson to anyone who is considering selling locally'.

Jeremy commented 'I am delighted that Mr. and Mrs. Roy were pleased with our service and I am sure they will have a long and happy time in their new property in Broadwindsor'. We are still finding the market extremely busy, indeed our sales are far outstripping the new instructions and therefore we need more properties to sell. If you are considering selling or are on the market without success, please contact us on 01308 863100.

New Peugeot 2008 SUV: The popular and versatile SUV offers even more attractive features for customers

THE recently revised new PEUGEOT 2008 SUV that arrived in UK showrooms in June is in strong demand with over 40,000 existing UK customers and 500,000 produced since launch in 2013. The appetite for this model continues to rise, with sales in the first half of 2016 up 16%, with 99,900 units sold worldwide.

In the UK, attractive retail consumer offers are available for customers of the new PEUGEOT 2008 SUV who can benefit from finance offers with 4.9% APR across all models between July and September 2016. Customers will also benefit from an £850 customer saving on new PEUGEOT 2008 SUV (exc Access A/C) and an additional £350 Dealer deposit contribution if the customer chooses PEUGEOT Passport or Just Add Fuel®.

A PEUGEOT Passport finance package with a customer deposit of £1,000, on a new PEUGEOT 2008 SUV PureTech

82, results in monthly payments of £211 for the Active and £237 for the Allure model. Customers choosing PEUGEOT's 'Just Add Fuel®' all-encompassing, 3-year finance package on the same model will have a monthly payment of £241 for the Active and £268 for the Allure model, and the 'Just Add Fuel® Telematics' finance package is also available for 18 year olds and above.

Examples given are for a 40-year old living in a low risk Band 2 Postcode. Terms & Conditions apply*.

The latest PEUGEOT 2008 SUV has recently been updated, with refreshed styling and featuring an enhanced specification. It has an even more assertive and appealing SUV design, including visual features to give it an enhanced presence; new wheel arch extensions (from Allure level), while a new vertical front grille and front and rear scuff plates (also from Allure level) confirm its robustness and are designed for everyday use. The new 'Ultimate Red' colour further epitomises the power and desirability of the new 2008 SUV. The Access A/C, Active and Allure levels are complemented by the new 'GT Line' model. This desirable trim level is already a very popular choice on other key PEUGEOT models (108, 208, 308 and 508), and adds a sporty theme throughout.

The PEUGEOT i-Cockpit® is unique to the Brand and embodies the driving characteristics of the PEUGEOT 2008 SUV, being agile, intuitive and safe. The compact sports steering wheel offers precise steering and improved manoeuvrability, while the 7" multifunction colour touch screen puts all the functionality at your fingertips. In addition, the head-up instrument panel allows driver information to be accessed without taking the eyes off the road.

Grip Control - an adapted traction system - gives the new 2008 SUV its versatility on all types of terrain. It is combined with Mud & Snow (All-Season) tyres. Equipment available on new PEUGEOT 2008 SUV includes (subject to trim level) MirrorScreen, and Carplay®, along with the reversing camera, Active City Brake and Park Assist - a rarity in this segment. The Euro6 engines ensure high-level driving pleasure while remaining fuel efficient. Four versions are 'Best-in-Class' in their segment, including the 1.2L PureTech 130 S&S 6-speed manual.

Mark Pickles, UK Marketing Director at PEUGEOT, said: "The 2008 SUV is a distinctive and popular, practical choice with our customers, with 500,000 of them worldwide and with sales up 16% in the first half of 2016. Our current retail offers bring increased appeal to an already captivating vehicle."

The extensive 2008 SUV range made simple:

Four trim level choices: Access A/C, Active, Allure and GT Line

Price range: from £13,615 to £20,565 (on-the-road)

Engine choice: three PureTech (82hp, 110hp & 130hp) and three Blue HDi (75hp, 100hp & 120hp)

Transmission: manual 5-speed and 6-speed, ETG Piloted manual and full EAT6 automatic available

Popular models: Allure (50%), Diesel 1.6L BlueHDi 100

(18%), Petrol 1.2L PureTech 82 S&S (34%)

Interesting: GT Line takes 24%, Petrol at 66%, Pearlescent White (7%) makes white 28% of range

Colourful choice: nine colours available; two solid, five metallic, a pearlescent and 'varnish' paint finish

Most popular colour: Bianca White (21%), Nimbus Grey (20%) and Ultimate Red (17%)

Lanehouse Vauxhall Identifies Top Summer Road Trips for Dorset Drivers

VAUXHALL retailer Lanehouse Vauxhall, with sites in Bridport and Weymouth, is encouraging families to take to the road and make the most of the school break with its Summer of Fun Top Five guide to attractions across the South East. With the long holidays stretching ahead, this handy list identifies some of the best places to visit to keep the whole family entertained without breaking the bank.

For families in Dorset, the guide highlights some of the South East's gems that are a little off the beaten track or in picturesque locations - making for a scenic and enjoyable road trip.

Dominic Avery, Company Director at Lanehouse Vauxhall, said: "Going on a day out should be fun from the moment you get in the car, so we wanted to highlight some of the best places to visit during the school holidays. From getting closer to nature to understanding more about our local heritage, this handy guide should offer something for all the family."

"At Vauxhall our range of vehicles is designed to make the journey as enjoyable as possible, so for families looking to upgrade their in-car experience this summer we'd encourage them to visit the showroom to see the spacious Mokka and check out our connected car system, OnStar - available on selected models, which makes entertainment instantly accessible while you're on the road."

VAUXHALL SUMMER OF FUN TOP FIVE - SOUTH EAST

Road Dahl Museum and Story Centre, Buckinghamshire

The Museum, aimed at 6 to 12 year olds, features three interactive galleries. Boy gallery looks at Roald Dahl's school days, while Solo gallery houses his original Writing Hut. The Story Centre puts your imagination centre-stage with an array of activities to inspire the writer in young visitors.

Lewes Castle, Sussex

Climb to the top of this 1000 year old Norman Castle for stunning panoramic views across Sussex. The adjoining Barbican House is home to the Museum of Sussex Archaeology and houses local collections from the Stone Age to medieval times. There is a programme of educational events during the summer holiday to ensure young visitors get the most from this stunning venue.

Freightliners Farm, Islington

For city-dwellers, Freightliners City Farm, a charity in the heart of Islington, provides an exciting opportunity to experience a real working farm in action. With a range of rare breed animals and fun activities, this is a great day out for the whole family.

Rochester Castle, Kent

Strategically placed astride the London Road, guarding an important crossing of the River Medway, this imposing fortress has a complex history of destruction and rebuilding. Today it stands as a proud reminder of the history of Rochester along with the cathedral and cobbled streets. With an extensive summer programme of crafts and cinema in this striking setting, it's well worth the visit.

Broadstairs and St Peter's Beaches

Broadstairs and St Peter's have seven sandy beaches at the feet of towering chalk cliffs. Charles Dickens holidayed here and The Dickens Museum tops off a family day out to this charming location.

For further information or to view Vauxhall's extensive range of family-friendly vehicles, visit your local Lanehouse Vauxhall or go online to www.lanehousevauxhall.co.uk.

Four in four! a record for Rhys?

Defeated, but Dunford signs off with fine innings

Devon League 2nd XI Division C
UPLYME & LR 1ST XI 230 FOR 6 BEAT
FENITON 1ST XI 127 ALL OUT BY 103 RUNS
BOTH Uplyme & Lyme Regis sides struggled to put out their strongest team as the holiday season took its toll on player availability.

But the first XI still proved too strong for visitors Feniton thanks in the main to a match-winning knock of 73 from Michael Van den Berg and a possible piece of club history from bowler Rhys Davies.

On winning the toss Feniton had no hesitation in inserting their hosts on what was a worn pitch. They were immediately rewarded with the wicket of Rob Thom bowled by Jon French for just a single.

But Laurie Thomas and Mark Brimicombe dug in and built a solid partnership of 69 before Brimicombe was snapped off the the bowling of Charlie Selley.

When Thomas eventually went to a return catch to Selley for a patient 35 Uplyme had reached 91 and needed to increase the rate in the remaining 15 overs.

Mark Batey for 8, but the partnership between Steve Batey and van den Berg turned the game on its head.

Together they plundered the Devonians' bowling for another 130 runs before Batey was run out for 51 and the South African was caught by Selley off Anning completing a fine knock of 73 that included four sixes and seven fours.

Uplyme took the field in confident fashion and Nick Dinnison bowled Graham Tucker with the score on 16 to give them the start they wanted.

They then had to be patient as Mark Salter and skipper Jon Pyle set about building a partnership. The breakthrough came when Steve Batey had Salter caught behind with the score on 67.

Skipper Batey then introduced Rhys Davies to the attack in the unaccustomed position of first change, a move that proved to be vital to the fortune of the team.

Davies regained his bowling composure in a spell that saw him take four wickets in four consecutive deliveries – a feat that is thought to be a club record.

Club chairman Derek Wellman said: "I can't remember in my 40 years at the club anybody else performing this feat – the closest I can recall was Henry Barlow taking four in an over, but not in a row."

The Feniton resistance subsequently crumbled and it was left to Dinnison and van den Berg to mop up the tail as Fenny were dismissed for 127 in the 39th over.

LOST TO EXMOUTH 3RDS 203 BY 72 RUNS

SKIPPER JAMES Dunford's heroic innings of 88 failed to save the nine-man Uplyme 2nd XI from defeat at Exmouth 3rds.

The depleted line-up restricted their hosts to 203 all out thanks for four wickets from the impressive Gabriel Maltby and some magnificent efforts from Harry Jobson and George Hussey in the outfield.

Dunford, in his last innings for the club before leaving the area, batted superbly and the team banked eight valuable points in their quest to beat relegation.

Davis holding series lead

A SW BREEZE eased for the second race before filling in again for the third of the day, gave 18 Lyme Regis Sailing Club members the opportunity to take part in the RNLI Tankard which is always sailed during Lifeboat week.

The RNLI Pennant race will be held on Wednesday, July 27th, when boats pay an entry fee which is donated to the Guild. Once again, the second race had to be abandoned due to confusion over the course to be sailed, and once again, Cameron Moss headed the fleet and won a trophy.

Cameron & Darrol Moss led the way over the upwind - downwind course ending with a first place in their RS 800, while Chris & Russell Thorne (Fireball) took the third race over a triangular course by a margin of 17 seconds from Cameron.

Simon Clark (RS 700) came second to Cameron in the first race but did not compete in the third.

Steady with third in both races was Dave Guthrie in his Phantom. The races were also part of the Mid Summer Series.

When series races are held, points favour regular participation. One discard is allowed, so Hilton Davis, who has sailed all of the current series with one retirement, now leads on 29 points from Dave Guthrie on 46.

The club cruisers, although not strictly set up as racing boats, are keenly competitive on the RYA handicap system and set off on an hour long race to the sewer buoy and back for their RNLI Wine Bottle race.

Rob & Margaret Wiscombe (Hunter Medina class), finished ahead of Andrew Willoughby & Mike Moore who in turn just pipped Keith & Kaye

Thompson (Parker 21) by six seconds, while Berey Pealing & Hugh Duncan were two minutes behind in fourth.

RNLI Tankard (and Mid Summer Series 7&9): 1st Cameron & Darroll Moss (RS 800), 2nd Simon Clark (RS700), 3rd Dave Guthrie (Phantom). 1st Chris & Russell Thorne (Fireball), 2nd Cameron & Darroll Moss (RS 800) 3rd Dave Guthrie (Phantom).

RNLI Wine Bottle: 1st Rob & Margaret Wiscombe (Hunter Medina), 2nd Andrew Willoughby & Mike Moore (Hunter Medina), 3rd Keith & Kaye Thompson (Parker 21) 4th Berey Pealing & Hugh Duncan (Hunter Medina).

Meanwhile, preparations are under way for the club's 95th Regatta. Entries can be made online on the club website, with Notice of Race, Sailing Instructions and details.

More trophies as progress continues

LYME Regis Gig Club continued their recent advances with some excellent recent performances at Bridport and Teignmouth.

The sun shone at West Bay for the Bridport Regatta, where 12 local clubs took part. Lyme fielded a record 19 crews in the various races throughout the day, including for the first time two under 14s crews.

For most of these youth rowers it was their first taste of the intensity of racing - from the build-up to the start line, to the intensity of the mass racing starts, from racing around the buoys to chasing down the opposition towards the end and they loved every bit of it!

Both crews did the club proud and should look forward to future races with much confidence as they held their own amongst a field of crews almost entirely made up of under 16s.

For the Lyme Ladies the highlight was a second place in the Ladies A race, beating some high class crews. This result is arguably the ladies' best result this year, working their way up through the racing field throughout the race, which is a very hard task indeed.

The Men's A and Men's Vets continued their local dominance winning in both classes and are now considered to be 'the crews to beat' amongst the Dorset clubs.

Overall Lyme came second in the regatta, a highly commendable result, and would like to thank the excellent squad of co-gig rowers at Bridport for a superb regatta.

The Teignmouth Regatta also benefited from fine weather. For this regatta the opposition is of a very high level with crews from all over Devon and Dorset.

The flat water always benefits the fitter crews who can apply superior fitness with every stroke. However, this also means that the racing is even more exhausting and will sap every last bit of energy from weary muscles. Lyme took three ladies crews and three men's crews, most of which delivered solid results.

Once again the Ladies A crew put in a solid performance, coming third of the 10 crews racing. This again displays how they have progressed over recent months with all the hard hours training in Lyme Bay paying dividends.

The Men's A crew had a dramatic race, getting tangled up with the Salcombe crew on both turns and being forced off course as a result. In such exchanges only one crew can prevail and in this case it was Salcombe. By the time they had recovered Lyme had dropped from first to last!

However, disappointment was soon forgotten as the Men's Vets crew, facing some of the best crews in the country, dominated their race from the start, taking home yet another trophy for Lyme Regis. Lyme would like to thank the River Teign Rowing Club for a well organised regatta and some great cakes!

Lyme Gig Club have now won nine trophies this season so far, more than ever before, with plenty more races to come, including the Lyme Regis Gig Regatta on the Cobb on Saturday, August 13th. Spectators and supporters are very welcome and the Cobb wall makes for a great view of the gig racing throughout the day.

Lyme Regis Bowls

Decimated by Dorch!

THERE was yet another disappointing week for the men in their various league campaigns while the Ladies having a week off from league competition.

The championship side struggled for their two points against a very strong Dorchester side. Paul Pomeroy's and Barry Rattenbury's rinks both going down by four shots with Paul Moffitt's rink scraping home by two shots.

Lyme 2 had a tough time away to Portland Victoria, on a green of dubious character, just managing to snaffle two points with a narrow win on Don Meylan's rink.

The South Dorset team had a nightmare against Dorchester B losing by an eye watering 47 shots!

On Thursday, Ladies captain Angela Rattenbury held her Captain's day match and meal at the Club, with invited guests playing a round-robin game against five Lyme teams. The other competing teams were Seaton; Dorchester; Bridport; Ottery St Mary and Axminster.

The game was won by Seaton with a Lyme team of L Broom, C Barber, C Pomeroy & M Bartlett/K Lavery sharing the honours.

The meal was prepared by our catering officer, Pauline Knight, ably assisted by her band of helpers.

As is the custom, the ladies were waited upon by some of the male members who also completed the job by washing-up!

Bridport Bowls

A team win bragging rights

BRIDPORT A got the better of the B team in their Men's South Dorset Division One clash, winning two of the three rinks for an overall 60-49 victory.

Craig Bosher, David Eastman, Mike Smith & Brian Rumble lost 14-23 to Roy Lidington, Mike Long, Tom Tocher & Bob Taylor, but Chris Taylor, Dave Robbins, Keith Brooks & Chris Thorne beat David Roberts, Steve Bartlett, Paul Tibble & Ken Sanger 26-13, and Ben Jones, John Carter, Derek Hoskins & Brian Conisbee got the better of Mike Stephenson, Fred Pomeroy, Bob Seadon & Barry Shortland 20-13.

In Dorset League Division Two, Bridport B lost 34-42 to GREENHILL, with just one winning rink; Joan Griffiths, Dinah Wilson, Jean Seadon & Delphine Street who picked up three on last end to win a tight game 14-13 for two points. Pam Gray, Chris Robbins, Jill Willcox & Marion Tocher dropped a five on the last end after a close game to lose 11-15, whilst Lynn Craddock, Dianne S Butcher, Pauline Newitt & Janet Tattershall lost 9-14.

Bridport lost the Edna Paisley Triples League match 41-25 at home to DORCHESTER. Mary Corfield, Sue Fox & Janet Tattershall lost 10-23, while Mary Marsh, Jill Willcox & Mary Eastman went down 15-18.

In a friendly against CHARDSTOCK the ladies won 63-43 with top triple being Sue Fox, Chris Robbins & Delphine Street.

Saturday saw a day out to Totnes after which four rinks went to BUCKFASTLEIGH where the top rink was Roger Smith, Joan Griffiths, Mary Eastman & Marion Carter.

At TOTNES the top rink was John Ireland, Peter Carnell, Mike Craddock & Pat Cornick.

School Sport

Colfox in national final

THE Sir John Colfox Academy U13 cricket team have made it through to the national finals of the 'Chance to Compete' 8-a-side state school cricket competition for the first time in their history. The final will take place at Edgbaston Cricket Ground in September.

As Dorset County Champions they competed against other winning schools from Berkshire, Cornwall, Gloucestershire, Hampshire and Wiltshire in the regional finals at Bristol, and were drawn against Hampshire champions St Edmunds, and Gillotts School from Berkshire in their round-robin group.

A good bowling display restricted Gillotts to 50 runs off of their seven overs in the first game. Knowing a good start in reply was important, openers Ethan Robertson and Euan Pollock started quickly.

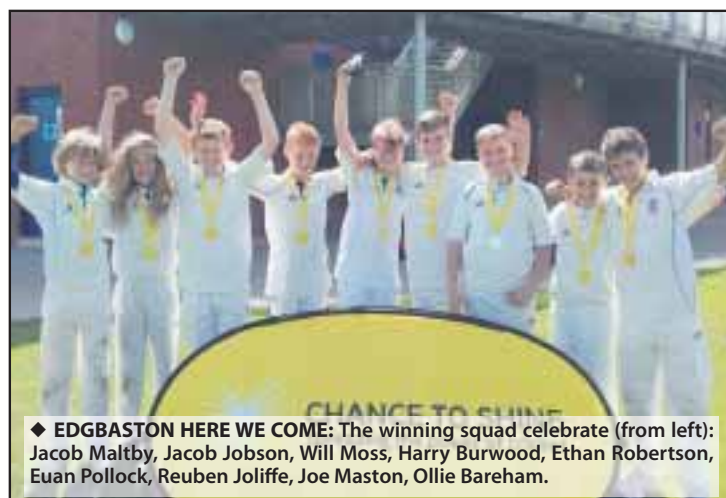

With retirements forced for batsman after 20 runs, Pollock retired after scoring 23. However with Colfox in a strong position, sensible batting from the remainder of the team saw them move safely to their first win.

A win against St Edmunds would guarantee them a place in the final, but the Hampshire side batting first made a fine start but tight bowling from Jacob Maltby who conceded only two runs from his over helped keep the score down to 51.

Confident that the runs could be chased down, things did not go to plan with Ethan Robertson dismissed first ball and Maltby out fourth ball.

However thanks to some high quality batting from Pollock (21 retired) and Reuben Joliffe (22 retired) the total was reached with one over to spare.

The final against Marling School from Stroud, Gloucestershire saw The Sir John Colfox Academy batting second after losing the toss. Marling had won their group easily, putting in some dominant performances and scoring 95 runs in the previous game, but Colfox got off to the perfect start.

The Marling opener played Robertson's first ball straight back to him and then carelessly wandered out of his crease - instinctively, Robertson picked the ball up and threw the wicket down with the batsman well out of his ground. This set the tone for the rest of the innings where wickets fell at regular intervals.

Will Moss, bowling the final, over took three wickets and a run out to help restrict the total to a very respectable and gettable 61 runs.

Colfox's innings didn't start well either with Robertson falling quickly to a dubious LBW decision and Joliffe out soon after, leaving Pollock to once again anchor the innings.

For the third game in a row he retired after making 20 runs, but by this time he had given Colfox a solid base to build on.

Jacob Jobson came in and smashed a wonderful 20 runs, ably supported by Ollie Bareham, and it was fitting that Jobson hit the four that both won the game and reach his retirement score at the same time.

The team were ecstatic at the result, but commendably held their celebrations in to go straight over to the losing side and shake all their hands before finally being presented with the trophy for being the South West champions.

Colfox are crowned beach soccer kings

THE Sir John Colfox Academy have been crowned Dorset Schools Beach Soccer champions following a recent tournament held on Weymouth beach.

The Bridport team defeated Blandford, Gillingham, Poole High and Purbeck in their round-robin group, with Euan Pollock grabbing most of the goals.

They met the other group winner Shaftesbury in the final where, in a very close, game two goals from Pollock and one from Finley Cauldwell was enough to see them take the title 3-1.

County honour for Seasiders

LYME Regis FC's efforts both on and off the field have been recognised by the Dorset County FA.

The Seaside, along with Dorset Premier League outfit Sturminster Newton United have been given the honour of participating in a match at the County's football headquarters at Hamworthy to mark the opening of the new ATP pitch.

The match is scheduled for Friday, September 30th (7.30pm ko) and there is likely to be a coach leaving from the Davey Fort for players and spectators.

The match will be also played as the Mark Frowde Memorial Match and each player will receive an award, there will be an official guest to meet the players.

Frowde was a founder member of Weymouth FC and held the offices of Dorset FA secretary, treasurer and chairman. In addition he was linesman at the 1907 FA cup final when Sheffield Wednesday beat Everton 2-1 before a crowd of 84,000 played at the old Crystal Palace stadium.

LRF Secretary Rob Thom said: "I received a phone call from Sue Hough (Chief Executive of Dorset FA) inviting us to play in the official opening of the new pitch at the County Ground.

"We have been chosen as a recognition of our successes at County Cup level, our continued support to Dorset FA, our good disciplinary record and the way our club is run on and off the pitch.

"This is a massive privilege to be invited to play on such a stage and I hope players, officials and supporters will look forward to representing our amazing club on the date. It will be a night to remember and another memorable part of our club's rich history."

The Seaside begin life up in the Devon & Exeter League Division One with a tough-looking away fixture at Sidmouth Town Reserves on Bank Holiday Monday, August 29th (3pm).

The Reserves, now up in the D&E Division Six are at home against Tivvy Park Rangers on Saturday, August 27th (3pm).

Lyme Regis Reserves are due to welcome Combe Reserves for a friendly on Friday night at the Davey Fort (6.45pm ko).

Tomorrow (Thursday) the first team were due to visit Ilminster Town.

Meanwhile, the Seaside are set to wind the clock back to 1966 with a showing of the World Cup Final at the Davey Fort on Saturday immediately after the first team's friendly against Winchester.

DORCHESTER (6) 151 ALL OUT

LOST TO SHERBORNE (20) 271-8 BY 120 RUNS

DORCHESTER'S title hopes were all-but ended with this defeat by defending champions Sherborne.

With several players missing, the county town found themselves facing an uphill task after the visitors on winning the toss elected to bat and racked up 271-8 in their 50 overs.

Opener Luke Hancock (58) put the bowling to the test as he scored a half-century, whilst top scorer K Boucher (79) together with middle support from James Elliot-Square (32) and N Harris (34no) set a bid target.

Standin captain James Dunham (3-53) and 2nd XI captain Mike Peak (2-36) were the pick of the Dorchester bowling attack.

Only opener Dan Belt (30) and top scorer Dan Morris (49) really got going as Dorchester failed dismally to worry the visitors and were dismissed for just 151 all out.

SWANAGE (20) 187-5 BEAT

MARTINSTOWN (5) 185 ALL OUT BY 5 WICKETS

MARTINSTOWN failed to capitalise on a good start to fall to their first defeat after three consecutive wins.

In-form skipper Ed Nichols (40) produced another solid performance and he and Lee House (36) put on 70 for the first wicket.

However, at 110-1 and the dismissal of Dave Herbert (25), things went downhill, with only Ryan Chase (16) getting into double figures as Ian Booth (2-23), Will Selfe (3-43) and Dan Salmon (3-29) took control to bowl out Martinstown for just 185.

Nichols said: "I'm disappointed we didn't go on to get a bigger score. All three of us at the top of the order all felt we should have done better, particularly as we were lacking a bit of depth in the middle order."

"I thought Ian Booth bowled very well in the middle before their returning seamers got amongst the lower order."

"Although 185 wasn't a bad score, at 110-1 I thought we had enough overs left to have topped 200."

With a smallish target, opener Salmon (48) went for his shots and although Matt Camp (2-34) and James Pickering (2-40) both picked up braces, Swanage had enough batting to see them home comfortably with 15 overs to spare.

20 runs in nine overs.

With Harry Mitchell (2-11), Joe Ames (1-25) and Graham Puckett chipping in with good contributions, the visitors were dismissed for just 136 on what Browne thought was a pretty decent wicket.

Inspired by their bowlers, Weymouth applied themselves with the bat, and Dean Janaway (11) and Michael Pearce (15) gave them a solid start.

Payne took command from then on and, with seven fours and a six, looked to have won it. But he went for one big hit too many and perished, leaving Neil Walton and Dom Webb to see them safely to a third consecutive victory, with plenty of overs to spare.

"Paul anchored our reply and almost got us over the line, but it was a good overall performance. The second half of the season is proving more fruitful than the first!"

County Division 2

CATTISTOCK (18) 196-1 BEAT

ASHMORE (4) 192-7 BY 9 WICKETS

CATTISTOCK completed their sixth consecutive victory to continue to head the division, but bottom side Ashmore showed once again that they are improving as the season progresses.

The visitors won the toss and elected to bat, and despite some very tight bowling from Bradley Damen (1-23 from nine) their openers gave them a solid start before first change Liam Toohill bowled Julian Watson (25) with 48 on the board.

Lee Russell joined Andy Taylor and although the going was slow against more economic bowling from Billy Walbridge (0-12 off six) they took the score to 125 before Ollie Lee had Taylor (40) caught in the 33rd over.

The returning Toohill (3-31 from nine) then dismissed Russell (56) and Andy Maidment with successive balls, as Ashmore posted a respectable 195-7 off their 45 overs.

In reply Jon Legg and Walbridge looked comfortable before Legg (41) was well caught behind by Taylor with 62 on the board.

From them on Walbridge who carried his bat for 75 (9x4, 1x6) and Joe Baggs with an unbeaten 69 (10x4) sent the visitors to all parts of the field as they passed their target with more than 11 overs to spare.

BRANKSOME (18) 241-7 BEAT

PORTLAND RT (8) 209-7 BY 32 RUNS

DESPITE good batting displays from Callan Laws (54) and captain Matt Randall (69), Portland couldn't reach their target at Branksome and went down by 32 runs.

Asked to field first, Triangle had some early success with Jon Cameron (2-41) and Gary Randell (1-44) among the wickets.

But solid performances from Alex Warren (37), James Purnell (64) and Jackson Sheppard (54no) saw the hosts post a target of 241-7 despite a brace each for Matt Randall (2-40) and Simon Barrett (2-44).

Elliott Sawyer (2), Dave Adkins (8) and Joe Adkins (12) were early casualties for Triangle, but Laws and Matt Randall dug in and started to turn the game around but the dismissal of Chris Theakstone, run out by Purnell, saw the end of their chase.

County Division 3

POOLE TOWN 3RD (6) 110 ALL OUT

LOST TO BEAMINSTER ((19) 195 ALL OUT BY 85 RUNS

BEAMINSTER gained their first away victory of the season with ease against bottom side Poole Town 3rds at Whitecliff Rec thanks to Ali Crawford's excellent innings of 79.

The victory sees the west Dorset club move into a comfortable mid-table position - and a couple more wins could yet see them in a top three spot.

After losing the toss and then both openers in the first four overs, Beaminster's innings was rescued by Crawford (14x4, 1x6) and skipper Ross Baker. They shared an entertaining 89 run partnership including a 20 boundaries and a huge six by Crawford over long on.

The partnership was broken when despite an inside edge, Baker was adjudged lbw as Poole fought back. Four quick wickets including Crawford's then followed as Beaminster's middle order wobbled.

However, the promoted Nick Hollely (30) batted sensibly with the young tail and ensured Beaminster set a challenging total on a bouncy and sometimes unpredictable surface, and were delighted to close on 195 all out when the final wicket was taken in the 45th over.

Poole's reply started positively as the home side's top order played their shots. Although runs flowed from the bat, wickets also tumbled as Crawford took 2-23 and Nick Hollely 1-20 reduced them to 35-3.

However after changing ends Ross Baker returned to the attack and found steep bounce and carry to unsettle the Poole Town batsman.

He swung the game the visitors' way taking 4-32 including R Hellawell (40) who was the only batsman to show any real resistance, leaving debutant William Moss to take the final wicket with his fifth ball in the 25th over as Beaminster won comfortably.

County Division 4

HAMWORTHY REC 2ND (20) 124-1

BEAT ABBOTSBURY (2) 120 ALL OUT BY 9 WICKETS

ABBOTSBURY'S promotion ambitions suffered a further blow as the Swans slumped to a second successive defeat as fellow contenders Hamworthy bolstered by a strengthened side with their first team not in action, proved too strong.

After winning the toss Swans' skipper Simon Pengelly, continuing his recent good form, and fellow opening batsman Simon Allen made a promising start as a fast outfield ensured maximum return for their shots, before Allen (10) was caught with 30 on the board.

This became 50-3 as Robin Potter (3) and Frank Pittman (0) soon returned to the pavilion. However, Chas Duerdth joined Pengelly at the crease and played some typically belligerent shots in a quickfire 27 but a promising partnership was cut short when he was bowled.

Worse was to follow for Abbotisbury as Pengelly (43) was contentiously caught behind and Steve Budd and Nick Kneebone both departed without troubling the scorers, but some lower order resistance from Aaron Oliver (14) and Ashley Harrow (11) pushed the score past the hundred mark.

Defending a modest total of 120, the early breakthrough the Swans needed was provided by the experienced spinner Krish Subramanian (1-29).

But, that was as good as it got for the away side as despite some tidy bowling from the Abbotisbury attack, no one was able to stifle Hamworthy batsmen Sam Stroud (58no) and Jack Hector (59no) as they regularly pierced the infield.

Stroud was given a reprieve when he was dropped in the slips off the bowling of Duerdth (0-25) but both players went on to record unbeaten half centuries as Hamworthy cantered to victory with 19 overs to spare and strengthen their grip on second place.

Next up for the Swans is a tough challenge against unbeaten league leaders Charlton Down.

DORSET INDIAN TIGERS (8) 168 ALL OUT

LOST TO CHARLTON DOWN (20) 210-9 BY 42 RUNS

CHARLTON Down's impressive unbeaten run was severely tested by an excellent and very keen Dorset Indian team, but ran out eventual winners by 42 runs thanks to some excellent batting by James Pretty and Kim Park and four wickets from Javed Gill.

Charlton Down won the toss and batted on the small Charborough Road ground, and although they only started with seven fielders, it made no difference as Dorset Indian's opening bowlers Vinod (2-30) and Richard (0-10) were in excellent form with Vinod bowling Jack Eveleigh off the first ball of the match.

Jae Miller and Roger Frapwell batted well to survive on a very bouncy wicket and accurate bowling. Richard was particularly miserly conceding only ten runs from his eight overs and so unlucky not to pick up any wickets.

A change of bowling saw talented all rounder Shafiq bowl Frapwell (17) and when captain Sharma bowled Miller (14) the visitors were 37-3 off 13 overs.

At this point Charlton Down decided to take the game to the opposition and a quick partnership of 57 in seven overs between Sam Roles (24) and Park increased the scoreboard activity until a change in bowling saw Ayaz take two quick wickets.

But Park (47) and Pretty (69no) dug deep and produced a match winning partnership pushing the score to 154 before Park was run out. Good support from Rob Deadman, Marc Spurway and Pete Tucker hepled the stylish and rampant Pretty, to add 56 runs to the Charlton Down total.

Pretty's innings made the difference at a very important part of the match, being particularly brutal to anything short, and his driving through the covers was exquisite and he remained unbeaten on 69 (14x4) from 68 balls.

Tigers made it obvious that they were not going to leave scoring the runs to the last over with 24 runs coming from the first four overs.

Jae Miller struck first having Richard (19) leg before, whilst Rich Fagence (2-49) saw the hosts 41-3. Khan (27) the explosive hitting of Shafiq (59) used the short straight boundaries effectively, and looked to be taking the game away from Charlton Down with the score on 105-3 after only 16 overs.

However an inspired change of bowling from captain Pete Tucker saw Javed Gill (4-35) rip out the Dorset Indians middle order taking four wickets in ten balls.

Tucker (3-14) then introduced himself into the attack and he bowled the dangerous Shafiq for a hard hitting 59 and then mopped up the tail to ensure a 42 run victory with nearly 10 overs remaining.

The win extended their unbeaten run to an impressive 12 matches, and they now only need 44 points from five games to ensure promotion.

BEAT WITCHAMPTON (9) 172-7 BY 39 RUNS

MARTINSTOWN 2nds made it three wins on the bounce and now hold a fairly secure midtable position.

Captain Matt Rimmer led from the front with a splendid 79 and following an early loss of wickets, was ably aided by good supporting performances from Stuart Dawson, Chris Monteith and some lusty blows from Alex Pipe to record a total of 211 all out.

The Witchampton reply hinged around their captain Ricky Hempstead who scored 84 and kept taking the game to Martinstown despite some economic bowling from Pike, 14-year-old Jamie Stewart and Rimmer.

However defending well in the field the hosts restricted the visitors to 172-7 to move above them in the league.

Duo aim for nationals

THE July stableford was played in ideal conditions as summer finally arrived.

Tom Glover took full advantage, blitzing the front nine to finish -3 gross to win Division One with 41 points. Andrew Dawe's 39 points secured 2nd place while David Lyon came 3rd with 37.

Division Two belonged to Ian McGown with a solid 39 points, while Simon Leech's more consistent play just pipped the ever-improving Steve Piper on countback, both with 37.

The seniors played the Gordon Putter medal competition and it could not have been tighter as the top four all came in with a nett 71. On countback, Jim Kerr took the trophy from Roger Turner in second with David Binns in 3rd.

The Ladies played the Ping 4BBB competition and Di Smith & Rosie Jackman will have to wait and see if their winning 44 points is good enough to go forward to the national finals in Lincolnshire later in the year. Kate Smith & Jane Broom finished 2nd with 41 points.

The Junior Stableford saw some better scoring, and close competition, as Cameron Moss came 1st with 37 points. Dominic Beardwood's storming back nine saw him finish ahead of Lewis Gibbons on countback, both with 35 points.

Janie raises the flag again

INSTEAD of the usual men's competition, Sunday brought the ANNUAL MIXED OPEN, a Greensome format and 28 pairs took part.

The weather was good for golf, not too hot and sunny but warm and pleasant till mid afternoon when there was a little rain.

There were four prizes on offer and all the winners carded 36 points so places were decided on count-back.

Emerging as the winners were Toshiko & John Ricketts with runners-up the two vice captains this year Janie Dowling & Phil Winton.

In third place, the only outside winners, were Terri Kennard & Neil Capener from Wells. Margaret & Mike Thompson were fourth. The nearest the pin winners were Viv Gill & Larry Elliot.

In Wednesday's MIDWEEK STABLEFORD Mannie Wellman (25) took first place with a six-point cushion carding a fine 42 points. Second with 36 was Terry Cleal (21) and in third was Patrick Harper (9) scoring 35.

On Saturday Bridport won 3½-1½ in a Hardy B home match against DUDSBURY.

◆ NEW COACH, NEW KIT: Wes Lewis pictured at a last week's training session. Bridport will be wearing a stylish new kit (above) for the upcoming 2016-17 Dorset & Wilts League Two South season.

BRIDPORT rugby club has started its pre-season training for the forthcoming season in the Dorset & Wilts League Two South under the guidance of their new coach Wes Lewis.

Players started formal training this week in preparation for the start of their league program in September and pre-season friendlies.

Under new player/coach

Wes Lewis, who brings his experience of working at Cardiff Blues and London Irish, the club are hoping for a successful season in Dorset & Wilts League Two South.

Bridport FC pre-season news

WITH STUART BROOM

Fricker pleased with players' character

THE biggest single thing Bridport boss Adam Fricker learned from his side's latest pre-season friendlies was the character of his players, which convinced him he has the right players at the club to succeed.

Having produced their best performance of pre-season in the 1-1 draw at TIVERTON TOWN RESERVES midweek, his charges showed that, despite tough opposition, in PLYMOUTH PARKWAY where the 3-0 defeat flattered the SW Peninsula side, his team never gave up and stuck to their task.

He said: "I think from a footballing perspective the Tiverton game was our best performance so far. We adapted the shape a little and the lads responded well which is promising looking forward to the season because that is something we are going to have to do now and again. It was a really good workout, a great performance and a decent result."

Reflecting on Saturday's game he said: "We knew Parkway would be the toughest game we would have this pre-season; they are a very good team, almost Southern League standard, but I thought the scoreline flattered them slightly as they scored with virtually the last kick as we were pushing to get back in the game

breakaway goal

"I think the biggest thing we learned was the character of the lads. We conceded early on when they caught us on the hop and by the time we had settled down and sorted a couple of things at half-time, we were looking really strong in the second half.

"Unfortunately they caught us on the break again, but the lads didn't back down or slack off. They stuck with it and kept doing what we asked, that was a major plus and showed us that they are the sort of players we want on board."

With only Mark Salter and Tom Blair up front the Bees had to adapt slightly due to their lack of attacking options. Without Luke Woodland, and with Ed Butcher and Braeden Symes only playing 45 minutes to blow the cobwebs away having just returned from holiday, they were unable to play with width, particularly as Matt Condliffe who gives the team a lot of options going forward was also missing.

Fricker commented: "Defensively we looked strong but needed that bit of pace going forward down the line."

The Bees were scheduled to entertain ILMINSTER TOWN last night (Tuesday) giving Fricker different problems.

"On paper we should beat them, so the lads need to make sure they don't think it is going to be a walkover and need to approach it with the right attitude."

"I think throughout the season winning against the teams at the bottom are as important as those at the top."

Indoor Bowls

Top trio march on

THERE was no change at the top of the Bridport & West Dorset Indoor Bowls Club Evening League following the latest round of matches with the three leaders all winning.

Pugilists remain top after Pete Cowburn, Eric White & Keith Jenkins condemned the pointless Wrestlers to a 17-4 defeat.

Viv Gill, Anne Parkins & Tony Sharrod's Fencers stayed in touch with a 17-7 win over Archers while Erica Sarson, Barry Mapson & Hugh Rees' Divers stay third following a 15-10 victory over Gymnasts.

Mel Hargett, Barbara Jenkins & David Drake's Decathletes trailed the Swimmers 6-1 before an amazing scoring burst of 5, 1, 2, 7, 2 swept them to a 19-9 win.

The Equestrians of Val and Reg Dodd & Phil Hedges felled the Hurdlers 13-9, whilst Sharon and Les Heath & Stephen Grier's Rowers finished with a one count to draw 12-12 with the Cyclists of Gordon Lee, Peter Sandall & Andy Marsh.

The Gunners won the top-of-the-table clash against the Spurs in the Morning League 17-10 to open up a two-point lead.

Gunners' pocket dynamo Nova Varney was the star at two, backed up by Brian Baker and Martin Wilton.

Tony Bartlett, John Boxall & Bernard Winton's Potters silenced the Canaries 17-6, but they stay second, a point above Spurs.

A sticky end saw the Toffees drop counts of 2, 5, 4 to lose 14-10 to Mike Parsons, Barbara Jenkins & Chris Everest's Glovers.

Meanwhile, Peter Hunt, Reg Dodd & Tony Harrison's Red Devils drew 8-8 with the Magpies of Brian Savery, Sarson & Mapson.

Maureen Hicks, Chris Thorne & Hedges' Pensioners beat Foxes 12-7 and Brian Cattell, Roger Cowmeadow & John Davies' Cherries overcame Hammers 14-9.
